ANNUAL

BLOOMFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

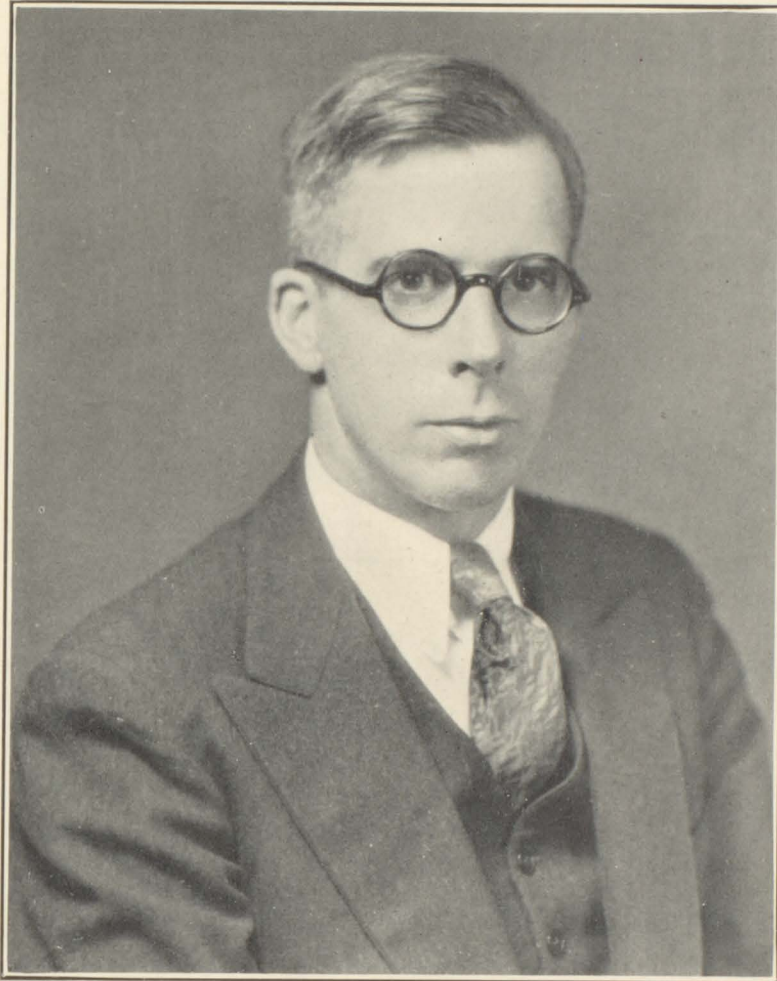

BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

FOREWORD

When Father Time with scythe and glass,
Dispels with fleeting years,
Those Happy memories of our class,
And friendship disappears,

This little book will visualize,
Those fast departing days,
Herein remain those binding ties,
That pierce the shrouding haze.

DEDICATION

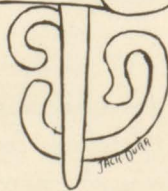

To show in a small way our appreciation for the manner in which he has guarded our interests throughout our high school life, for the way in which he has time after time placed the affairs of our class above his own private concerns and brushed aside personal comforts for our welfare, for the way in which he has defended us and trusted us through many critical periods, we dedicate this Annual to our class adviser,

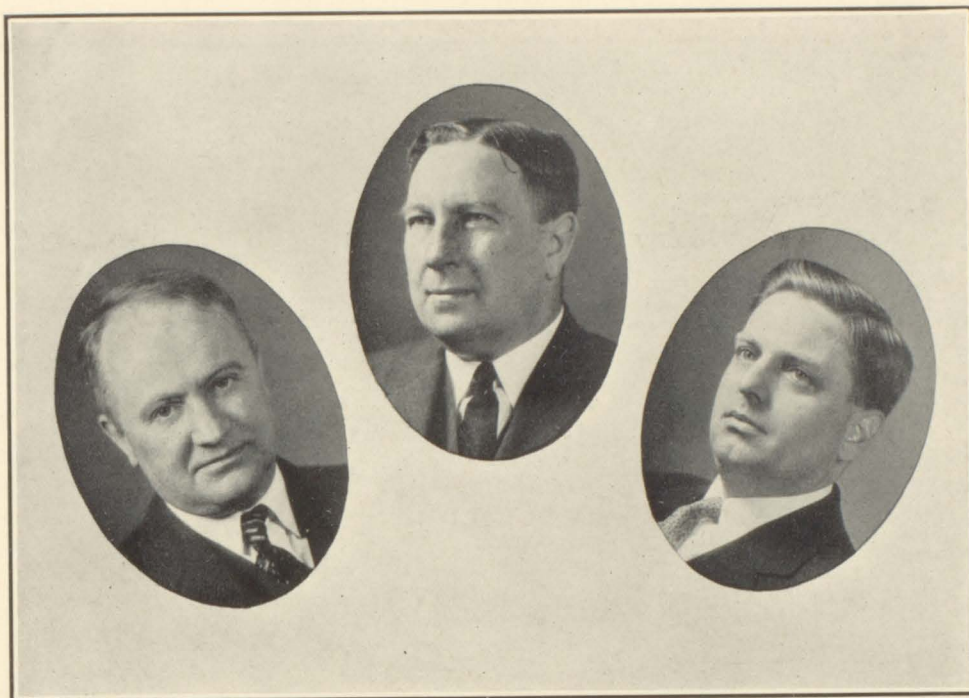

MR. JEROME C. SALSURY.

ROBERT MILLER

"BOB"

"What a racket."

Bob is our worthy president, a man of innumerable activities and unquestionable popularity.

Bob is an all-round athlete; he plays football, baseball and basketball, being captain of the latter two. He was boy representative of the Athletic Association and later he became president. He was president of the Hi-Y and is now treasurer.

Bob enters Dartmouth in September, where he will study Business Administration.

He was the leading man in the Senior Play and played the part of Grenfall Lorry, the love-stricken American in an almost hopeless quest for a beautiful Miss Guginslocker. He also plays a mean sax and a hot piano.

JOE BRINK

"JOE"

"Don't never do that."

Oh Wah! Here comes Joe, the popular Vice-President of our class. Joe is one of the hardest workers in our class and was greatly responsible for the success of the Washington trip. When there was any work to be done, Joe could always be relied on to help.

He can usually be found in the company of Naty, Nick and Jack. (Good Company?) He was one of the first to read the book, "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes", and firmly agrees with the author.

Joe is a great bowler and expects to reach the 300 mark some day.

He is an active member of the Chem Club and expects to go to Columbia where he will study business administration.

MARION SMITH

"MIM"

Yes, this is Marion! If you don't already know her, you would be pleased to make her acquaintance for besides being attractive she is a real live wire. She is our class secretary and also president of the French Club. And can she rattle off French! But then no language stumps Marion; in fact, no subject bothers her, for she wins high honors with as much ease as most of us lose them.

Marion does not confine her interests to studies alone by any means. Scotty comes in for a good share of her time and what is left each day after two hours of practicing music are subtracted, Marion spends on lessons.

In short, she is a good and dependable, a bright and pleasing girl and we predict a second Paderewski when Marion completes her course at N. J. C.

ROBERT CUNLIFFE

"Bob"

Bob is the Treasurer of our Class. He is one of our numerous three and one-half year students. He has been a member of our class for about two years now and in that time has shown his worth many times over.

Bob has the distinction of being the tallest man in the school (believe it or not). He is six feet four inches tall.

He belongs to the Commercial Club. As Harry Anguish in the play, Bob gave a very good idea of what the wise-cracking sympathetic friend of a love stricken hero will say and do.

He is President of the Hi-Y and an all-round good fellow. He was manager for the basketball team last season.

MURIEL ACKERMAN

"Moo"

"Ob, I'd just love to."

Introducing Moo. We unanimously agree that Moo is a good all-round girl. Muriel is capable of doing two things at the same time, as she has often shown in P. D. class. Her popularity is proved by the fact that she is president of the Girl Reserves.

Muriel expects to enter Skidmore and indulge in a liberal Arts course. We all know she will honor B. H. S.

Books are undoubtedly Muriel's hobby. She assists in the Public Library after school. You know that is the reason why so many of the stronger sex visit the library.

Moo is a member of Latin, Chem, and Girls Glee Clubs. She is an active member of Home Economics Club and was a member of Senior Play Committee.

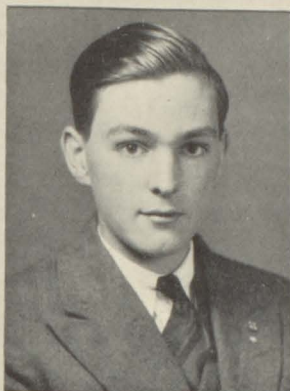

FLORENCE ACOCELLA

"Flo"

"He's a Pot."

If a person saw Florence speak more than five words in a row that person would have something to boast about. Florence is very quiet which might be attributed to the fact that she hails from Cedar Grove. Her one ambition is to be a school teacher. But we are inclined to believe that after she reaches her goal, she will no longer be the quiet girl that we once knew.

DAVID ALLEN

"DAVE"

Toot-toot-toot! Here comes Dave, our faithful representative in the band and orchestra. Four seasons in each. A pretty good record.

Dave spends a large part of his time at the Y. M. C. A. playing basketball and he has a deadly eye on the basket. In the after-school basketball games, Dave managed to sink them from all angles.

Dave is one of our brilliant three and a half year students and is a member of the Chem Club. With his comeliness and ability to toot a horn, he will probably be playing in Paul Whiteman's band before long. At least, we look forward to see Dave make a success of anything.

ALMA ELIZABETH ALLIS

"BETTY"

"Oh I got a buzz, I got a buzz."

Who's that dark-haired girl with the pretty smile? Countess Dagmar, of Graustark, played by Alma Allis. This was one of the leading parts in the Senior Play. It was her fine work as the Countess Dagmar and her wonderful personality that led the class to vote her the "class vamp".

Her favorite study is English. She is a member of the Chemistry Club.

In the fall Alma expects to go to Cornell University in New York State. She will probably study dietetics. Wouldn't she make a pretty nurse?

PHILIP ARNOLD APLEYARD

"ARNIE"

"I'll plop you one."

Introducing, folks, Mr. Appleyard, who came to us from Glen Ridge. He played Basketball and ran the 440 on the track team and is prominent in the Math and Hi-Y clubs. Arnie says his ambition is to become a millionaire. Perhaps the girl he discovered on the Washington trip has something to do with it. His favorite study is Math, because he does his solid homework in P. D. classes. That's definite proof.

He will attend the University of Penn. in the fall and we hope his strong weakness, women, won't cause him to flunk out.

Arnie has a habit of pulling fast ones. He must spend his study periods reading College Humor or some similar literary work, but never mind, Arnie, no one has ever added up the value of a smile.

LEO ARANOFF

"ARANOFF"

"Ycab?"

Look at that coat! Boy, that is one natty outfit. Any one who didn't see Leo dressed up for his part in Graustark missed a real treat; he was one of the Dawsbergen Guards.

"Aranoff" is one of the hottest dressers in the class. How he obtains them is not our good fortune to know, but he certainly has the most variagated suits of any fellow in the class.

PHILIP ARBUCKLE

"PHIL"

Phil Arbuckle is one of the best informed fellows on automotive mechanics in the class. He wants to be an aeroplane expert sometime in the future. In fact he has already advanced in his chosen field, for at present he is completing actual plans for an aeroplane.

He is active in clubs, being a member of the Chemistry, Math and Hi-Y clubs. His favorite study is Chemistry. He spends most of his spare time in the Chemistry Laboratory.

On the Washington trip Phil fell a victim to feminine charm. (There was a school from Detroit at the hotel represented by many charming girls.)

Phil is going to increase his knowledge at N. Y. U.

HAZEL AUDSLEY

"HAZEL"

Another blonde! What a fortunate class we are. Hazel is among that select group of students that are always worrying about marks falling below a little bit. Throughout all her high school life she has seemed to adhere to that saying, "All that you do, do with all your might . . .", for even her fine gym work shows it. Hazel performed some of the most complicated work in the Girl's Gym Exhibition and was duly rewarded for her faithfulness with a silver pendant, from Miss Russell. When we chance upon some of the pictures that ornament Hazel's pads, we wonder why she has chosen to go to Montclair State Teacher's College to become a school teacher instead of being an artist.

DOROTHEA BECKENTHAL

"Dot"

"Chubby Dot" with her pretty waves and ringlets. Say! even though Dot is quiet she certainly likes her art work. And Dorothea was our assistant art editor, don't forget.

Yes, another student for the Newark School of Fine and Industrial Arts. Dorothea is also very much interested in music. She is a member of the girls' Glee Club.

Dot won't have so many books to carry home when she starts in on her art work. That will certainly be missed! Dorothea is a member of the Girl Reserves.

ROBERT M. BEERS

"Bob"

"No kiddin'!"

Owie! who is that tearing off that hot tune on the piano? Oh! that's only Bob Beers our super A-1 pianist exercising the auditorium piano. He can play anything on a piano, including poker. Bob has the hobby of writing original jokes and his ambition is to be a big advertising man. He is manager of the track team and a member of the Hi-Y. Bob's favorite study is English and he will major in it at the University of Virginia this fall. In a short time Bob will give to the world some more of his famous expressions as, "In the game it's grit. In the spinach it's terrible," "Reach for a blanket instead of a sheet."

Bob Beers and his popular Rhythm Kings will soon have Rudy Vallee and his band hunting for a job. And baby! can Bob lead that orchestra! We expect big things and new songs from our Bob.

KEITH BENSON

"Keith"

Benson is one of these clever sophisticated men who can do Solid Geometry without much effort. We feel very inferior before his keen brain and ready wit. He moves and talks slowly about school, but, oh, boy, he certainly is speedy with the girls and on a tennis court. Keith attended Peddie Prep for a year and came back with a great deal of knowledge. Keith and "Juny" seem to be an inseparable pair and whatever one does, the other follows suit. He intends to enter the big business world.

We forgot to mention that Keith's favorite subject is English.

ALICE ELIZABETH BALL

"BETTY"

Alice fairly revels in school work. I challenge you to catch her in German, French, or Latin. Four years of the latter did not abash her; she loves languages.

Alice belongs to the Latin, French and German clubs and also to the Girl Reserves. Quite a list of clubs when you belong to the group who always choose a stiff program. When anyone remarks upon such a course Alice replies, "It's not so bad; really, I don't mind it."

Bright and on the alert for knowledge, she is constantly acquiring a good bit o' learnin'.

Alice is going to N. J. C. and her ambition is to become a librarian so that she may live all day among the friendly books. That's fine, Alice, only don't absorb too many books in one day!

ADALINE BOARDMAN

"ADALINE"

Adaline is getting out in three years and has been on the honor roll at that. How does she do it? It must take a lot of home work and midnight oil, but she's equal to it.

She is a quiet, studious and persevering girl, very ambitious and willing to work.

English is her favorite subject.

She is going to Montclair Normal, to prepare to be a teacher.

We wager she will succeed in anything she undertakes.

RUTH BRIGGS

"SLIM"

Ruth is one of those quiet little misses who never seem to say much but are always ready to do their bit.

Since she doesn't belong to any clubs, Ruth finds roller-skating and dancing enough recreation to keep her quite busy.

Wherever Ruth is, one may find Bernice Lyons, because they are the traditional Gold Dust Twins, inseparable.

FRANK BRENNAN

"FRANK"

"What's her name?"

Frank is pretty much of a sheik. Nothing can interest him more than la femme except perhaps it be a radio set. He claims that his hobby is radio and his weakness blondes.

Frank is a member of that select organization the Chemistry Club and was a stagehand in "Graustark." His triumph in dramatics was when he played the hostess part in the Hi-Y Minstrel. His snaky "Diamond Lil" walk was pretty smooth.

Next fall Frank is going to pursue the study of science at some electrical engineering school.

Frank sings in the Glee Club.

EILEEN BRUCHE

"SHRIMP"

Little, but oh my! Shrimp's famous for her wise crack and good nature and also for her liking for ———. That's why Annapolis was the best part of the Washington trip, eh what? Eileen is an athlete in the true sense of the word, being one of the four girls to be awarded with three B's and a sweater. When you're in a tight squeeze Shrimp is a good one to have around, so we're sure she'll succeed in the business world. Eileen expects to enter the Seth Boyden Business School.

DOROTHY BUNTING

"PUTS"

"Phooee."

Puts is quite a sheba, we hear. Why shouldn't she be with those big brown eyes? Beans are —or should we say beans is (?) her weakness. Mammy! Does she like to sleep? You ask Mr. Andrus!

She can be heard any time of the day or night loudly denouncing Chemistry. Puts never needs a horn to announce her presence since her vocal cords are quite flexible and strong—also enduring.

It has been one of Mr. Andrus's greatest trials to have Puts come walking in at exactly 8:15 every morning, after her card is all ready for the office. In all of Puts' three and one half years in High School she has been very distinguished by her favorite saying, "Phooie."

She has always used her plentiful store of pep for the benefit of the Glee Club, the Girl Reserves, the Latin Club, and the Chemistry Club.

EDWARD CAMPBELL

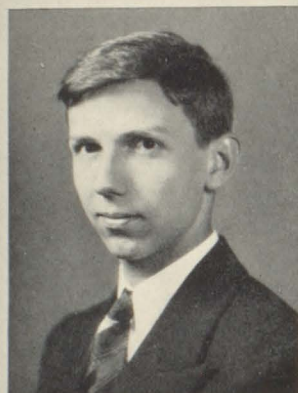

"Ed"

"Tell it to Sweeney."

Ed took the part of an Axphaine Guard in the Senior Play. Need we tell you how he looked in that flashy uniform?

His pet subject is Bookkeeping and his hobby is stamps. Movies are his weakness—Clara Bow, Nancy Carroll, Richard Dix—any star at all, so long as it's a movie. Sleeping, so he says, is his favorite pastime. That seems to be the most popular pastime in town—everyone seems to indulge in it.

His ambition is to be a C. P. A. He plans to attend night school to attain this. Well, the road is long, but good luck, Ed.

ALBERT H. CANFIELD

"BEANY"

"What'd we have in Trig?"

Al is the boy with the earnest endeavor. If one goes up to Cedar Grove he or she will generally find him tinkering around the bow of an automobile. Al will go to Stevens to be an M. E.

His favorite study is Math. Hard to believe, isn't it, Mr. Haupin?

As property manager of the Senior Play he did his job to perfection.

He is a member of both the Chemistry and Hi-Y Clubs.

ALFRED CANFIELD

"Al"

"Cut it out. Will ya!"

Here we have Al, the dancing demon of B.H.S. He actually makes a hobby of it. You should see him burn up the floor with his Montclair Hop. Some dance!

Al's favorite study is short-hand. When asked if he could do shorthand, he replied, "Yes, but it takes me longer."

Al holds claim to the prize laugh of the class, maybe even the school, and can he execute it! Why, he had us rolling on the floor of the bus down in Washington. The driver almost ditched the bus listening to him laugh.

Al is going to work after graduation.

ELEANOR CARMICHAEL

"CARMY"

"My lands"

Our little red headed girl. Eleanor is a good debater especially in English class. She is a good sport but at the same time does not forget her school duties. Eleanor is a member of the Home Economics Club, the Glee Club and the Latin and Chemistry Clubs. They keep her busy without a doubt. Red is an ardent football fan and is usually on hand for every game.

There is something very promising in Eleanor. Just think, she says cooking is her hobby.

Eleanor works in the library after school. We don't know whether this has any influence on her future work, but she expects to enter N. J. C. in September.

DOROTHY CLUBB

"Dot"

We won't forget Dot. Dot certainly takes life easy. Her wise-cracks and remarks keep us going. Dot always has a cold in class when she is unprepared. She is a member of the Senior Cabinet and worked very hard to bring success to our class. And listen! She is a member of the Latin, Chemistry and Glee Clubs, so we guess that her remarks are worse than her private opinions concerning school work.

Dot sings in the Girls' Glee Club and if you look at the Girl Reserve picture you'll see her there in front.

Dot expects to enter Montclair Secretarial College next fall.

HELEN CONKLIN

"HELEN"

Helen Conklin is a serious girl. She is reserved and shy, but very nice when you know her.

Her favorite subject is chemistry; consequently she is one of that select group, the Chemistry Club.

She has made her mark outside of school in her Campfire Girl activities, which she has pursued for several years.

She intends to go into training at Mountinside this fall. It is predetermined, if we could make a prediction, that she will be a capable, dependable, and careful nurse of the very best kind.

DONALD ANDREW COOK

"Don"

"What the heck do you mean?"

This handsome young business manager of the Senior Play comes to us from Brooklyn and it didn't take Don long to win fame and popularity among the students. He played varsity football and baseball and the skin he loves to touch is the pig-skin. Don was pivot man on the line last season and played a dandy game despite his game knee. He will go to Cornell to study hotel management and some day he will probably manage the Ritz-Carlton. We are told his weakness is "the little furnace". Whether that means a red head or not is for you to decide. We know it does.

Don is the boy representative on the Athletic Association and is a member of the Hi-Y. He claims the record of having crashed every class dance since he has been in our school. If you doubt his ability, watch him crash some time.

RUTH COOK

"RUTHIE"

Ruthie, a comely lass, likes dancing, movies and everything that goes to make a good time. She's been active on the Gym team for the past three years and also in the French Club. Ruth deserted us for a short while to live in Auburn, New York, the home of the famous Auburn prison. Shortly after she left, there was an outbreak among the inmates and they all demanded freedom. We wonder why Ruth aspires to Cornell. We wish her luck.

ARTHUR COONS

"Art"

Arthur is the boy without an ambition; he doesn't want to be a millionaire, a soldier, a sailor, an aviator or even a Boy Scout. Well, well, well.

Art can usually be found playing basketball up in Brookdale. They say he's pretty good at it. Baseball is next, says Art. He likes to play that too.

Fishing and reading are his favorite time-passers. One makes one think, the other gives one time to think; so perhaps he will become one of our great statesmen who sit and think out difficult problems.

DOROTHY CORCORAN

"Dot"

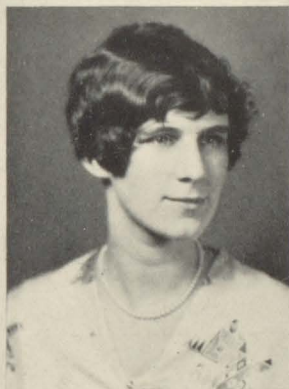

Dot is known as the hungriest girl in the Senior Class; she thought nothing, mind you, of eating four eggs, two portions of fried ham, two portions of potatoes, and two muffins at breakfast one morning in Washington.

Dot is another dance-addict, and may be found wherever there happens to be a good dance.

She belongs to the Commercial Club and is past treasurer of that organization.

She has lately become an acquisition of the Girls' Junior Gym Team.

She will go into the business world after graduation.

MURIEL CRAWFORD

"MOOIE"

Muriel is one of our three and a half year students and a good one of course, for whatever she does she does well. Aside from doubling up in her subjects, Muriel belongs to the Girl Reserves, French, History, and Chemistry Clubs. She is Vice President of the Girl Reserves.

Muriel's outside interest is Scouting and she knows that work from top to bottom. Ask anyone if Muriel is a good scout and the answer will be more than re-assuring.

Muriel is also one of the faithful workers on this Annual.

We know that this bright-eyed smiling girl will succeed in Montclair Teachers College.

LENA De GENNARO

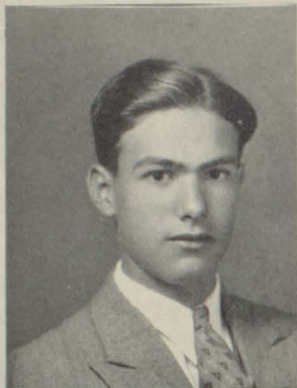

"LENA"

"Get back in your soup, you wise cracker."

Yes, yes! oh my, yes! Lena is one of the six students in high school studying Italian, so naturally it is her favorite subject. English is also one of her favorite subjects.

Lena has not come to a decision as to whether she will continue her studies or go to work. Anyhow, if she does continue her studies she will go to Trenton Normal.

Lena is a commercial student and is also a member of the Commercial Club.

JAMES DE MAI

"JIMMIE"

"Imagine my embarrassment."

"All good things come in small packages." This certainly applies to our little Jimmie. Jimmie hails from Cedar Grove and is one of the bright lights of that community. His favorite study is chemistry. This can be readily seen by the fact that he almost blew up the chemistry lab with his famous sodium experiment which gave him the name of Sodium King.

Jimmie is a quiet fellow in school but when he is outside he is a changed man.

He is treasurer of the Latin Club and is a member of the Chemistry Club.

Jim intends to enter Newark Tech in the fall where he will study engineering.

DOMENIC DI NITO

"DOMIE"

"What did you say?"

Hey, grab that fireplace and get it off the stage. Watch out! Don't knock the throne over! This was Dominic, stagehand de-luxe of senior play fame.

Domenic spends his leisure time playing baseball. We wondered where he got the gold baseball he carries around, but now we know.

Domie's favorite subject is French. Boy, is he good! Parlez-vous Francais?

PHILIP DODGE

"PHIL"

Extra! Extra! Right hot off the press. Phil is the sports editor for the Student Prints and also did the sport write-ups for the Annual. Phil writes weekly for the Newark Star-Eagle, the paper for which his father is sports editor. Rutgers is Phil's choice for his school of higher learning and he will undoubtedly make a success in the journalism course.

Phil was voted the most bashful boy in the class and was runner-up as most unusual.

Phil is on the track team and makes a hobby of playing tennis.

He is a member of the Latin Club.

SIDNEY DONENFELD

"SID"

Sid is one of the noisiest fellows in the Senior Class. His favorite study is History, probably because Mr. Salsbury is the teacher. Sid can cause "The Duke" more trouble than all the other fellows in the class. Sid is one member of the firm "Sid & Ben Inc." Sid is a great financier and is largely responsible for the good showing Room 107 made in banking. Everyone likes Sid, and why not?

Although he entered B.H.S. in his senior year, coming from South Side, he has done extensive work for the class. Besides playing a guard in the Senior Play he filled the important position of Organizations Editor for the Annual.

Sid is going to continue his good work at Ohio State.

SYLVIA DORESS

"SYLVIA"

Behold, the other half, no, we're not fooling you—this is Sylvia. She also is musical, having mastered the trumpet as well as the piano. In P. D. she trumpeted forth her socialistic views and participated in many heated arguments. Sylvia can certainly defend herself when she wants to. She is also a music teacher and is going to N. Y. U. with her twin sister for the music supervision course. If ambition has anything to do with it, we are sure she'll make good.

ALICE DORESS

"ALICE"

Yes, this is Alice—believe it or not. It is so far an unaccomplished feat to be able to distinguish between Alice and Sylvia. Alice is a musician and quite harmonious. As well as being the pianist of our orchestra, she has pupils of her own who are always making a good name for their teacher.

Alice is planning to enter New York University in the fall to become a music supervisor. We wish her teachers luck. But we know Alice and Sylvia will be up to the same old tricks that they have played on the teachers of B. H. S. It must be fun to be twins.

MARGARET DUNN

"MARG"

"Oh, Margaret, could you please help me with my Geometry, French, Algebra—," and the list might continue through the rest of Margaret's subjects. Margaret is one of the brightest in our class and one of the class' most willing workers. Never does she fail to help those who need aid in any subject.

She is president of the Latin Club, and a fine one too, as the banquet revealed. She is also one of the two female members of the Math Club and a worker in the French Club.

Margaret has a ready sense of humor and is always prepared to cheer the downhearted.

No fear for her success at Montclair Teachers College. Thoughtful, ready to help, full of her work, with a background of nineties Margaret will be a fine teacher.

JOHN DURR

"JACK"

"That's your belief!"

What ho! here we have Jack Durr, our future architect whose ambition is to design a new capitol building for Washington. He will prepare at Newark Tech. However, remember Jack, many a good architect has discovered that his wife can make plans too. Jack was caught by the reducing fad and now his classmates don't recognize him, he has grown so thin. Jack is jolly and good natured, not to mention the fact of his ability as an artist. He is the Art Editor of this book. He tells us that his weakness is the movies. We wonder if it is Clara Bow or Greta Garbo. Jack's favorite class is P.D.; that is because he gets a chance to catch up on some sleep in there.

ARTHUR WILLIAM ERIKSON

"ART"

"Well listen, Mr. Ross, I disagree!"

What! no more work to do. So speaks Art, the hardest worker in the class, looking for some job to do. He never stops going.

Art runs on the track team when he is not busy working. And can he step? When betters records are made, Art will break them; and when better girls are made, Art will make them. Even Countesses.

He will go up to God's country next fall, where he will major in English at Dartmouth.

Art was Managing Editor of the Student Prints, president of the Math Club, and a member of the Hi-Y and Glee Clubs. To finish up his record he took over the job of being Editor-in-Chief of the Annual and made a success at that.

Art is quite an essayist. He won a prize offered by the New York Times with his essay on the Constitution. He is sure to succeed in later life. Watch him, girls.

LOIS ERNST

"Lois"

Lois is the girl class leader and was voted the best class worker. She is always on the go, giving out tickets or checking up on the rest of us. She loves to laugh and talk and have a good time.

Lois knows how to work rapidly in a business-like way. She is a member of the Student Council and the Senior Cabinet. She also belongs to the Girls' Gym team.

For next fall Lois has accepted a position as secretary in Center School.

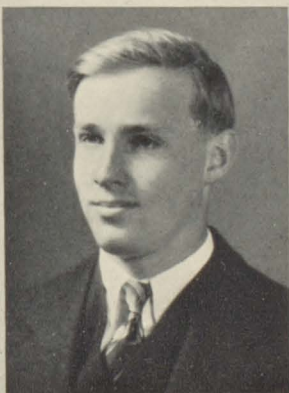

MADELINE EMMONS

"Mandy"

Madeline is another one of the quiet, demure, well behaved members of our class. But can she work? She holds only one office, that of secretary of the Home Economics Club, but she is one of the hard, faithful helpers behind the scenes. She belongs to the English, Chemistry, French, Latin and Home Economics Clubs and Girl Reserves. This alone would keep her busy, but aside from these activities she knows the ins and outs of scouting.

Mandy is going to the New Jersey College for Women where she will prepare to be an English Teacher. Her favorite study in High School has been English.

MAX FAELTON

"Max"

"The duece."

Max was voted the quietest boy in the class. Still waters run deep, however, and we wonder how he acts when out with the boy-friends or—girl-friends.

His hobby is baseball and he is an ardent fan of the Newark Bears. Grr-r-r.

He intends to go to the University of Alabama where he will prepare for business and perhaps fulfill his ambition to become a member of the Foreign Service.

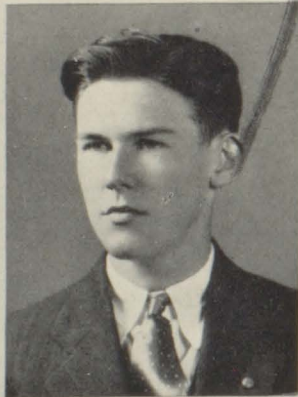

HERMAN FELBER

"FELBER"

"Now take the A. & P."

Three more days! Only three! Come on, you feet, get going! Herman Felber is as far as we know the only one, now in B. H. S., to have taken part in a six-day roller-skating contest in Madison Square Garden. His favorite sport is, of course, roller-skating.

Herman is going to be an accountant. After graduating from B. H. S. he expects to attend N. Y. U. and specialize in accounting.

SYLVESTER FINNERTY

"SAL"

"Confessed! Betrayed! Ostrom, you traitor!!" None other is this than the super-villain of "Graustark," Prince Gabriel of Dawsbergen, alias Sal Finnerty. His deep voice won for him this part, but without his costume and whiskers he is one of the most cheerful and popular fellows in the class.

Sal is one of the deep throats in the Glee Club. He spends his summers at Plattsburg, where he lives the army life.

Sal is another of the boys who "cowboys" in a National Grocery store.

He said that his ambition was to be a truck driver but we laughed at that. Sal will study elsewhere after finishing at B. H. S.

LOIS FORNOFF

"Lois"

"Dun't esk!"

We wonder if the Pepsodent Company has yet seen our Lois? That ever showing set of pearls should rival Amos 'n Andy's advertising results.

Lois is always ready to accommodate anyone. This is one of the secrets of her popularity.

The success of the Sphinx Society this year has been greatly due to the fact that Lois was the president. Besides the Sphinx Society, Lois is an active member in the Girls' Glee Club, The Girl Reserves and the Senior Class Cabinet. She was a very helpful member of each of these clubs. Lois is another three and a half year student. She is planning to enter the Montclair State Teachers' College next fall.

EVELYN GARLOCK

"EVE"

"So?"

Eve's goldy-locks have always kept her in the lime-light. Since she persists in having them long one week and short the next, it is always an open question of debate whether Evelyn looks much better with her hair cut or vice versa.

Although Eve has kept herself quite a mystery to most of the class, a few have been admitted into her confidence and found her a most true friend.

Eve is numbered among those fourteen Seniors who are graduating in three and one half years.

MAXINE GATENBY

"MAX"

"Hey! Kiddo."

Max is a good sport. And does she like her ukes? She carried two of them to Washington with her. That's not all. She certainly likes to climb the Washington Monument stairs.

Max came from the Glendale school in California. That is a long, long way, but we think she likes it here.

Max is another one who is going to the Newark School of Fine and Industrial Arts. If she does her art work as well as she does her English homework, we think she will come out on the top.

HOWARD GERHARDT

"HOWIE"

"Sure I did seventy last week"

Bzzzz! putt! putt! BANG! And out of a cloud of dust appeared Howie, mounted on his motorcycle. Howie is a member of the Phantom Riders, a motorcycle club; so you might guess that his hobby is motorcycles. Going or coming.

Howie also likes to ice skate when the roads are too slippery. Fancy and otherwise, he tells us.

Howie's favorite study is Economics. It looks as if he were headed for the presidency. That's where all economists end.

Howard will go to work after graduation.

EILEEN GIBSON

"EILEEN"

"Fermez la bouche."

Neat, petite, and sweet. Blue eyes and blonde hair. The best dancer in the class. But don't rush boys. They say a young fella named Al has her tied up.

This young lady who is a member of the Chem club was runner up for the smallest in the class. Hence, petite.

Eileen plays on the Girls' Basketball and Baseball teams and is a member of the Girls' Gym Team. Quite athletic, these girls that come from East Orange.

Eileen is a three and a half year student and expects to attend Montclair Teachers College this fall. Now don't you wish you could stay in school? Was that a chorus of nays or yeas?

ROY GIBSON

"Roy"

"All-l-l-right!"

Roy has been with us for only two short years, but in that time he quickly scaled the heights of popularity. He came to us from East Orange where they turn out good hurdlers, and so naturally Roy was adept along that line. He has been running the high and low hurdles this season on the Track Team and was also out for football last fall.

Not satisfied with being a mere track man Roy has taken up boxing in his sleep. He wiped up the floor with six fellows down in Washington without waking up. Yes, sir! He sure can fight.

Roy shines in P. D. but he has also taken almost every subject and every course offered in High School. He has been in three.

Roy will attend a business college, and after that he will be vice-president of some big concern. Notice the vice-president. He says he wants a chance for advancement.

His weakness seems to be Williamson Avenue.

ALLAN GRIBBEN

"AL"

"Sure, I'll take you in my car."

Al Gribben is a good-natured lad, always willing to lend one of his much-admired Auburns for any occasion.

He must have a way about him in getting ads for he surely can bring them in. His pleasing personality, perseverance, and sales talk have a lot to do with it. He was advertising manager for the Hi-Y Minstrel and the Senior Play and is on the Student Prints staff in that capacity.

He is very business-like and has been exceedingly valuable for the class and school.

He was a member of the Senior Play Committee. If any work is going on, especially in the advertising lines, he is the ringleader.

The school, the Student Prints, and all the other activities that he has so capably served will miss him sorely when he is gone.

Al expects to go to the University of Pennsylvania.

GLADYS GIERING

"GLADYS"

Gladys was the pretty heroine of the Senior Play. She was voted the most popular and best dressed girl in the class, and also received the vote for having the nicest smile. She deserves all of this and more. Ask La Verne.

Gladys belongs to the French and Chemistry clubs. She is planning to go to Newark Normal where she will take up Kindergarten training. We know that she would make a good teacher but we predict that her charming personality may cause our heroine to find her real hero before she has been many years a school teacher.

EDITH HAHN

"TEDDY"

What!—spend a solid period in P. D. without a break! Edith doesn't believe in that. A comb and a little lip stick and powder will just start her going. But she sat in a back seat, so it was O. K.

Edith is one of our commercial students. She too will tumble out of rules and regulations. We hope she stumbles on something good in the near future.

Edith is a member of the Commercial and Spanish clubs.

LILLIAN GREENE

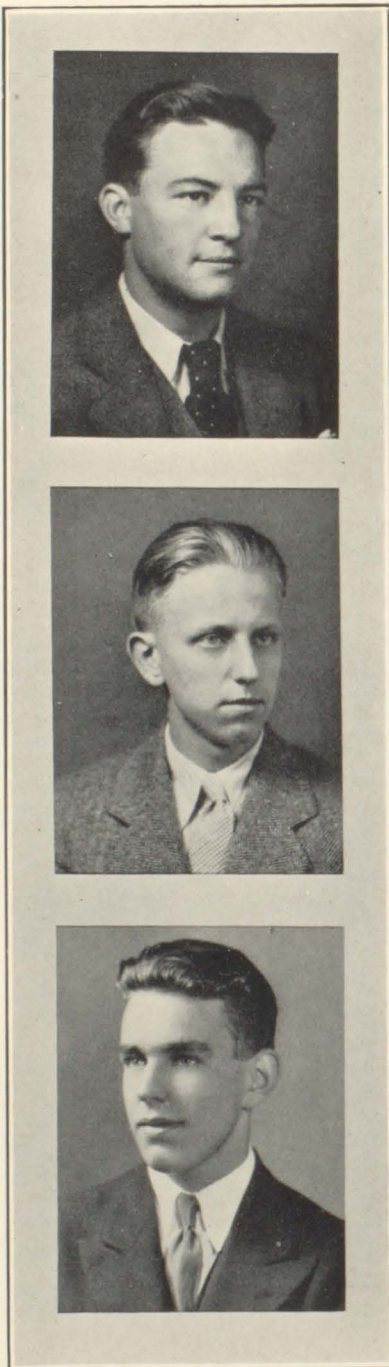

"LIL"

"My cow."

Lillian Greene is one of the most original people in the class. One must always expect a speech that is a little different from what someone else will say. When it comes her turn to take charge of the English class the period is most refreshing.

Lillian's favorite study is English. She likes reading enough for this pastime to be listed as her hobby. But she does not confine all her time to this subject for she is a member of the Sphinx Society.

She has not decided what she'll do after graduation.

ALBERT E. HART, Jr.

"MAC"

"Ain't cha right"

In this corner we have Al Hart, Jr., football star and assistant line coach for B. H. S. Al's big ambition is to graduate from high school. He left school but returned so that he could have Mr. Poole's name on his diploma. Al is full of pep and humor as was well proved on the Washington Trip. We are told that his favorite study is penmanship and his weakness is flashy pajamas. Al tried to convince Miss Smith that Scott's best work was Emulsion. We hope Mac doesn't pull that on his English prof at Albright this fall.

Al is the practical joker in the class, but he is quite serious when he is playing end on the football team, and he sure plays a bang-up game. And, oh yes, his weakness is Edna.

WILLARD HECKEL

"WILLARD"

"Come on, Moo."

Introducing—Willard. Willard is one of the most studious fellows in the class. He can always be seen carrying home a bunch of books. He is a member of the Senior Cabinet and had a great deal to do with the fact that nobody was lost in Washington. Willard upholds the tradition that opposites attract and has taken it upon himself to fall for a nice brunette. Willard's favorite study is French and he is one of Miss Hartz's best pupils. Willard is a member of the Latin Club and is Vice-President of the Chem Club.

He intends to enter Dartmouth in September. After a period of studying at the "School of the Green" Willard expects to study law at Harvard.

JOHN HEPBURN

"JOHNNY"

This noble, good-natured youth you see before you is a resident of that fair suburb—Brookdale. And he certainly is a credit to his Community. One of Johnny's many assets is a ready smile and this is one reason why everyone is attracted to him.

Baseball is Johnny's favorite sport and most of his afternoons in Spring are spent out working with Foley's diamond squad.

Johnny expects to become a gentleman farmer and will enter Rutgers next fall to learn that art. Oh, Yes! we almost forgot to say that John is quite a sheik with the girls and is a member of the Latin and Chemistry clubs.

STANLEY HORROCKS

"STAN"

Small, but oh my! Stan has already shown us what unusual ability he possesses. We have high hopes that Stan will bring fame to the halls of B. H. S. by winning the Edison contest. He has been chosen the representative from Bloomfield.

Are all "farmers" such good mathematicians? This one from Brookdale seems to be.

Stan is the secretary of the Math Club and a brilliant member of the Chemistry Club. He is a three and a half year student. After graduating from Bloomfield High, Stan is going to Newark Tech.

JESSIE HURST

"JESS"

Jess has a weakness for Freshmen, tall, short or what have you? Somebody has to guide them, you know, and she has come to be known as their patron goddess. Her special weaknesses are Fred and Carby.

She is a member of the Chemistry Club and belongs to the Girls' Senior Gym Team.

She swims like a dolphin; that is, she leaps and bounds through the rolling surf.

Even on the coldest of winter nights Jess may be seen skimming o'er the glassy surface of some frozen surface.

We hope and believe she will make a howling success in her role as stenographer to some important business man.

RAYMOND HYDE

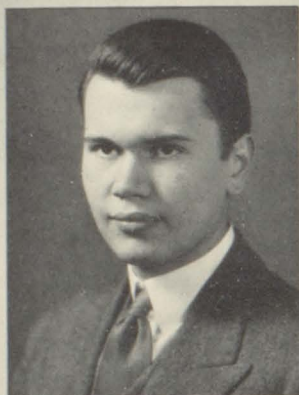

"RED"

"Won't they get a laugh out of that?"

Missouri, Montana, New York, Alabama, thus stands "Red" Hyde in the Bloomfield Post Office sorting packages and shooting them with unerring accuracy into their allotted bags.

Ray was one of the members of the Hi-Y. His favorite sport is baseball and he likes to drive his Ford.

After graduation he will continue to work at the Post Office until he decides what his permanent work will be. Perhaps some day he'll be post-master-general.

ALLEN JACKES

"JACKES"

"Band practice today."

Allen is one of the most colorful musicians in B. H. S. Jackes is always doing more than his share for the Band and it was mainly his work that put that organization on the high standard it is now. Besides being band leader during the last term he personally played the bass horn and the trombone.

Besides Band music he is vitally interested in Radio. No question on that subject is too complex or obscure for Allen to understand.

He spends his summers at C. M. T. C. and from the reports we have heard, he is a great marksman. Allen expects to enter Lehigh in September.

GLADYS KEETING

"KEET"

"What a guy."

Our quiet Gladys—But she gets there just the same. She finally got to Bloomfield. Two years ago she came from Hartford, Conn. Her delightful blue eyes go nicely with her dark hair.

Next fall Gladys expects to enter the Dental School in Columbia University. Gladys believes in getting busy quickly. This course is only a one year course. "Nothing doing with the four year courses," says Gladys.

Gladys is a member of the Student Prints Staff. They must exercise her typing because it shows in the P. D. work.

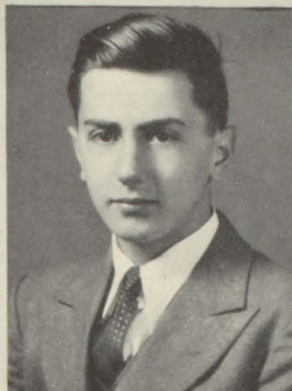

Did Gladys like to change her costume three times a day in Washington? Ask her!

JANE KELLNER

"KELLY"

Jane is an athlete. She excels in all kinds of outdoor and indoor sports (Take it as you will). But really, Jane was a member of Miss Russell's star gym team, and you should see her play tennis. Jane drives around town in a snappy sport coupe with permanent fixtures, boys and all. Because of illness, Jane did not graduate with her class last February and therefore has taken no active part in our class activities, but in having her, we benefit by their misfortune. After graduation she intends to go into business. We hope that she will enjoy the fruits of success.

LEON KARAS

"LEE"

"Tricky, eh what?"

This is Leon Karas, another one of the boys who jerk sodas. Lee thinks perhaps he will follow his father's line and be a dentist.

He belongs to the Sphinx Society and is another one of the Seniors who watch experiments at the Chem Club meetings. Lee's favorite sport is golf.

After B. H. S. Lee is going to attend the University of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia.

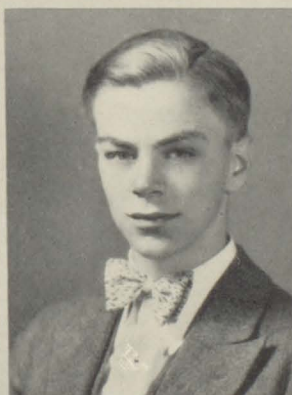

DOROTHY KINKLE

"Dot"

Good natured Dot! Soon she expects to step out into the wide business world. We hope Dot doesn't get lost or stray too far because, you know, she is only five feet two inches high. Dot is the most generous kid, especially with her Milky Ways in Gym practice.

She loves to drive around town and make calls. I bet before she gets far, the car is crowded.

Although Dot believes in having a good time almost all the time, she does seem to prepare her P. D. homework.

CARL KAUFMANN

"KELLY"

"See———?"

Whoa! not so fast, Kelly! Did you ever see him when he gets going? Oh, my! he can make that Ford go.

Kelly is an illustrious cabinet member of the class and works hard, tsk! tsk!

Have you heard that Kelly was a stenographer last summer in the Goodyear Tire Company? The job stretched through part of the winter too and he proved his ability as a typist on the Annual Board.

Can you imagine Kelly coming to school for one whole day without cutting a class? Well, we haven't heard it either.

And say, did you hear about the pillow mystery at Washington? Kelly certainly had all the boys stumped for a while as to where the much needed head rests had disappeared to. Carl is going to work after graduation—another banker probably.

LILLIAN LEE

"LIL"

Lil is another of the fairer sex who leaves B. H. S. to become a stenographer. We needn't worry about Lil's having a good time, for from what we've seen she knows how to manage that. Her hobby is dancing and we just want to let you know that she can step. We have also had inklings about her fondness for Red Bank and Verona. Lilian belongs to the Commercial, Spanish, and Chemistry clubs.

Lilian was voted the best looking girl in the class. Her pretty smile is also well known around school. She is a little quiet until she finds something to make a noise about, and then she goes to it. I don't believe she missed a dance down at Washington; if she did, it wasn't our fault.

PAUL LAWRENCE

"PAUL"

"I can't run today, Coach, my leg hurts."

Who could ever forget Paul if they saw him as the Princess of Abyssinia in the Hi-Y Minstrel? But acting is only one of the many arts in which Paul is outstanding. Any day in the spring he may be seen flashing along the track; he is our star sprint man and broad jumper.

During school hours Paul is a busy man. When not studying he may be seen entertaining from one to fifteen of his long list of girl friends. He belongs to the Hi-Y and the Chemistry Club and the Sphinx Society.

He is going to Newark Tech after graduation.

CLAIRE LUTHY

"CLAIRE"

Claire is one of our smallest members. She is barely over five feet. She expects to be a stenog. As a ticket seller, Claire can't be beat.

She is a member of the Girls' Senior Gym Team. Claire's hobby is dancing (at De Molay Installations) and her weakness—oh, shall we tell—is Anton. She seems to like them tall, maybe to show up her own diminutiveness. Her other hobby is that of riding in a red Buick roadster.

RUTH LANE

"RUTHIE"

Ruth is a sweet round faced little girl. Everyone who knows her admires her faculty for being a good listener and a girl who knows when to keep quiet. She has a keen sense of humor and is full of fun, though a bit bashful.

Ruth is a member of the Commercial Club and also the Spanish. She is not abashed by work, for besides her school activities she keeps house for her father.

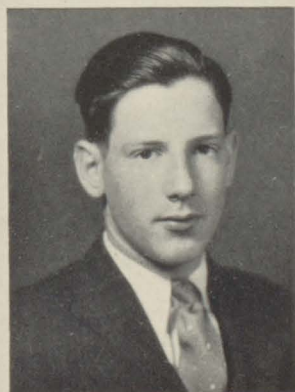

We are all sure that Ruth will make a good, quiet, business-like secretary of Franklin School. But an attractive face and pleasing personality together with a knack in house-keeping often change the plans of secretaries.

THELMA LAWLESS

"THELMA"

Hear that giggling down the corridor? Well, that's Thelma. Always smiling and cheerful. Quite talented too, in an artistic way. In fact she's going to Newark School of Fine and Industrial Art next year. Although Thelma is a three and a half year student, it can't be said that this fact has kept her out of the class affairs, for she was very decidedly alive at Washington, and we are indebted to her for some of the good work done on this book. Thelma is also a member of the Senior Gym Team, Chemistry Club and the Girl Reserves.

KENNETH LEITH

"KEN"

"What?"

Folks, gaze upon Ken, the lad without a favorite study. Whether he likes them all or none is still a question. Ken is going to the big city to work in the Stock Exchange. Perhaps he can sell some bonds to finance our Annual. His weakness is candy and he is always well supplied if you are lucky enough to sit next to him in class. He specializes in mints and fruit drops.

Ken was a guard in the Senior Play. Did he look handsome in his spiffy uniform and tall hat? You bet he did.

BERNICE LYONS

"SPIKE"

Spike is a lively whoopee-making girl, always full of fun and chatter.

She likes to ride in an Oldsmobile. Ruth Briggs and Spike are always together. Real Pals.

She likes to dance and she loves to swim.

Her favorite subjects are typing and shorthand.

She belongs to the Girl Reserves and the Commercial Club. She is also graduating in three and a half years.

She expects to enter the business world and be somebody's stenog.

JACK MARSH

"JACK"

Do you want any electrical assistance? Call Jack Marsh. He'll give it. He has had plenty of experience in that line as shown by the fact that he has been chief electrician of the Senior Play, Hi-Y Minstrels and school performances in general for two years.

His hobby is radio. All spare minutes that he gets from his electrical experiments, he puts in on D X-ing.

He is going to college next fall to prepare to be an electrical engineer.

FRANK MARTIN

"TEENIE"

Oh, you athlete! This time there is no sarcasm, for Teenie has been outstanding in both tennis and basketball. He acted as captain of the B. H. S. tennis team and did some mighty fine playing; in fact Teenie's tennis ability is known far and wide. He was forward for the basketball varsity.

In the Senior Play he performed doubly, as Dan-nox and also Allode, and turned out to be a deadiy conspirator.

Teenie will enter Bucknell next September.

JACOB MASIN

"JAKE"

"Ob! Am I sorry."

Lo and behold Jake our crooning tenor, the personality kid wise-cracker, master of ceremonies or what have you? Jake always wears a big smile and his jokes cheer all those who have the opportunity of travelling in his company. Jake is a great orator and his ability more than displays itself in P. D. He is quite a boxer and much of his time is spent in the "Grill Room." We advise Sharkey or Schmelling to watch their step after Jake graduates this June. The music room is another one of his favorites. Here he displays his talent in singing.

Jake is a member of the Glee and Chemistry clubs.

His next stop in his journey to success and higher education will be Ohio State.

ARTHUR MAZZUCHELLI

"ART"

Art is one of those fortunate people who seem to be born brilliant. Don't mistake us: we do not mean that he doesn't study, for he is probably the hardest worker in the class. His record shows it. Art is one of our most consistent honor students.

Besides being a whiz at school work, Art is a big business man. When people up around Brookdale way want a good drug store, why, they go to the one that Art works in.

Arthur's favorite study is Chemistry. He is a member of the Chemistry Club and at one time this term entertained that organization with some demonstrations.

Art goes to Columbia next fall to study pharmaceutical chemistry.

CHARLES MCNEELEY

"CHARLIE"

"Charlie my boy!"

Presenting, folks, the super, super of super guards in the Senior Play. Charlie didn't even recognize himself when he got all dressed up in a classy uniform and a long sword hanging on his side. Well, such is the life in bright lights.

Charlie works in the Eagle Grocery Company as a can shifter. More power to your elbow, Charlie.

He is right there with diligence and initiative. If that means anything, he is headed for success.

Charlie's favorite study is English. At least he does his Woolley occasionally and of course every one else does the Woolley too.

ANNA MILBANK

"MIL"

Have we a talented class? Just listen to Mil play the piano, then answer it yourself.

Although Mil is very unobtrusive in everything she does, she is very active. This can be seen in her faithful membership in the Girls' Glee Club, the Girl Reserves, and the Sphinx Society.

Oh, dear! wherever there's a blonde—there seems to be a man in the case. At least at Washington we thought that one would have liked to be "the man in the case."

After Mil finishes this three and a half year course in high school, she is going to the Montclair Teachers College.

LORETTA MOSELEY

"LORETTA"

Gentlemen prefer blondes and Loretta is one of the reasons. In the Senior Play she took the part of Countess Yvonne. This was a most difficult part, but Loretta handled it admirably. Evidently she believes in extra-curricular activities, for she is active in the French, Latin, Chemistry and Girls' Glee clubs. She is another representative of B. H. S. going to N. J. C. next September.

MARIE NUSE

"MARIE"

Yes, Marie has red hair and there is no question about it. But she certainly is calm and quiet. Marie doesn't believe in wasting her time; she seems to keep busy every minute of the day. If she sticks to this motto after she graduates, we think she will have no trouble in finding a desirable position.

Marie is a member of the Commercial Club and the Girl Reserves. Marie's hobby is dancing and driving when she has the time.

CHARLES O'CONNOR, Jr.

"JUNE"

"A little more noise."

"Wow! Wow! Waw!" Behold, June O'Connor, the chief cheer leader. He has worked hard in an effort to make our cheering better than that of other schools. It is largely due to him that our cheering is as good as it is. He has been cheer-leader for two years.

Junie was one of the select, a member of the Cabinet.

As Prince Lorenz in the Senior Play he looked very aristocratic and his acting was exceptional.

He was the treasurer of the Dramatic Club and in this line he expects to go to work after graduating. He aims to end up in Wall Stret. One of those big Wall Street bankers—not bad! not bad!

RUTH OHLSON

"RUTH"

Ruth is a very capable, calm and accurate girl. She is outstanding in the Home Economics Club. She is always one of the first to class. Excuse slips are a nuisance.

Ruth also likes her art work, sewing, cooking and singing in the Girls' Glee Club. Don't forget that lovely graceful walk of her—that's an Art. Maybe catching the Brookdale bus at 1:45 can be included in that.

Soon in the future we hope Ruth will decide what her heart desires to do. Just now she is at sea. Art work is her hobby, if that helps.

ELIZABETH OSTON

"ELIZABETH"

Elizabeth is a studious little girl. She is one of those rare persons who always get their P. D. done, and you ought to see her civics notebook. It is filled to the brim.

Although small and not athletic looking she has enough ability to be on the junior gym team.

She came to us from South Carolina three years ago.

Her favorite hobby is reading and her favorite study is English. How she does gobble up the books, and she reads good ones, too.

She expects to go to college in the fall, and her ambition is to teach English and Music. Fortunate will be those who have the opportunity to study under the supervision of Elizabeth.

MARGARET PLAMBECK

"MONKEY"

"Monkey" as her name will imply is one of the scintillating stars of the Girls' Senior Gym Team. She has been a member for three years.

Monkey expects to go to Rider College in September in order to learn the whys and wherefores of stenography and all that goes with it.

She belongs to the French and Chemistry Clubs. Monkey loves dancing and swimming, and, by the way, can she talk?—Does a fish swim?

She spends most of her spare time in the Chemistry Lab.

HAROLD L. PIERSON

"HAL"

"That's nothing, you should see the Boston girls."

Hail the future journalist! This is Hal, Associate Editor of the Annual and Literary Editor of The Student Prints. Pierson, to whom we are indebted for many of the excellent write-ups in this book, is going to Syracuse in the fall to study journalism.

During his afternoons Hal may be seen heaving the shot or throwing the discus or javelin for the track team. Besides his other activities he found time to be Vice-President of the Hi-Y and a member of the Chemistry and Glee clubs.

"Am I Blue?"—Harold acted the part of a dusky lady in the Hi-Y Minstrel and sang that song most pathetically.

Hal "loves 'em and leaves 'em" as far as we can see here, but he spends his summers in New England and the girls are very nice up there.

PRISCILLA PORTER

"PRI"

Does Priscilla like ice cream? Ask her. Now we know why the supply of ice cream runs out in second lunch.

Priscilla is undecided as to just what she wants to do after she graduates. But we have a guess that she will be decorating a home for Wally soon. Pratt Institute is in question however. Here's hoping she will take up Interior Decoration.

Priscilla is a member of the Sphinx Club and the Chemistry Club. She is President of the Junior Auxiliary in Montclair. We can safely say that club work is Priscilla's hobby.

ANDREW RALSTON

"ANDY"

Andy is a future forester and it is our belief that he'll make a good one. Almost any time in the fall or spring one may find him wandering about Davies Woods seeking to extend his knowledge on this subject.

Next fall Andy intends to journey to the West and back via the well known hitch-hiking route. After that, he will enter Cornell to continue his study of forestry.

Andy also spends a good deal of time on the golf links. If he takes to it seriously, Bobby Jones had better look to his laurels.

Andy is an active member of the Chem Club.

ANGELA REICHMANN

"ANGIE"

Behold our dark-haired, dark-eyed gymnast. Wherever there is a gym, Angela is sure to shine. She was the captain of the Gym Team as well as of her class baseball and basketball teams and was awarded a gold star for being the best girl athlete in sixteen years.

Angela is, however, not only a gymnast, but also a member of the A. A. Board, a group leader of the class and a member of the Student Prints Staff. She belongs to the Chemistry, English, French, and Girl Reserve clubs.

Angela is going to Upsala where she will take up gym work, and we predict a successful future for her, not only because she is good in athletics, but because of her pleasing ways and her good scholarship record.

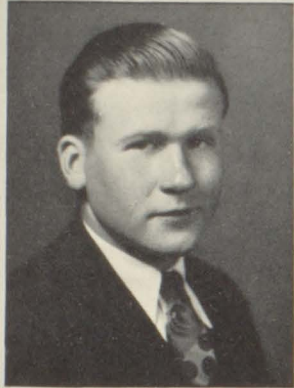

SARAH SACKS

"SARAH"

This dark haired girl is full of fun as those who know her can testify. Whenever we see her she is wearing a smile.

You should see her operate a typewriter. We wonder how she does it. She is all wrapped up in the machine but she manages to pound out the words all right.

She loves to skate and dance. She is a commercial student and a member of the Glee Club and Home Economics Club. We are sure that Sarah will make a good business woman either as a secretary or book-keeper. Her favorite subject is English.

FRED SCHEIBER

"FRITZ"

"If it wasn't for that I'd get a 100."

Fred is the lad who has completed four years of high school without puzzling over the baffling questions on exam papers. A mass of intelligence can readily be attributed as the basis for this feat.

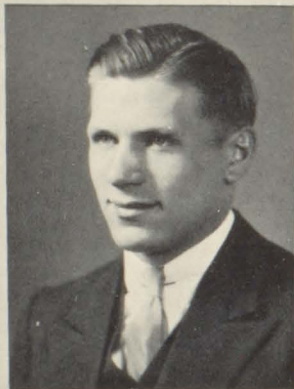

As stage manager in the Senior Play no one could have done better. More credit ought to be attributed to his work because he even partook in the play.

He is very enthusiastic over out-board motor-boats, which can be proved by the fact that he has won two races already. He is President of the Chemistry Club and a member of the Hi-Y.

He will enter Annapolis Naval Academy—quite a distinction.

We expect big doings of Fred.

Incidentally, he hails from Cedar Grove.

LEONARD SHOMELL

"SHOMELL"

Who is that boy playing that cornet? Boy, he is good! Can he play? Why, he can make that instrument talk!

Jazz is his middle name. He has it for breakfast, lunch and dinner. In school and out of school he plays jazz.

He belongs to as many musical organizations as possible in an endeavor to get enough of his delight. He belongs to the Boys' Glee Club, the Band and the Orchestra. He is also on the roster of the Chemistry club.

He is not quite decided as to what he wants to do. He will either go to college or be a musician. We predict that the call of the cornet will be victorious.

NICHOLAS SICA

"NICK"

"My father gave me——"

Nick is the boy who copped the votes for the best haircomb and the neatest dresser. We think his father's barber shop had a lot to do with his haircomb. His favorite pastime is taking handkerchiefs from girls. He can't seem to stay away from them very long. There are many broken-hearted women in Washington—according to Nick.

The Chem Club had him for Secretary and Treasurer; he was on the Senior Play Committee and a stagehand in the play. He intends to go to Columbia where he will study medicine.

ELLIOT SIMMS

"ELLIOTT"

"All the best people do."

Another noble guard of Axphaine, Elliott Simms! He certainly looked military as he marched and about faced in his pompous costume.

Elliott is vice-president of the English Club and a member of the Math Club. His favorite study is mathematics. He seems to learn without much studying.

After graduating from B. H. S. Elliott is going to attend Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

He is pretty much of a sheik, but his especial weakness is named Dorothy. Elliott's hobby is motor-ing. He likes new Fords.

KENNETH SIMONDS

"KEN"

"That's what she said."

The plaintive strains of a beautiful melody. That's Ken, the super violinist of the class, performing on his violin. He has played solos on several occasions in the High School auditorium. Ken is also a gifted singer and he is librarian of the Glee Club.

Ken has a hobby of building model ships and is quite expert at his pastime. We hope this is no indication that he is going to join the Navy.

After graduation Ken is going to take his little hammer and go about building big houses, as his ambition is to become a building contractor.

Ken is quite a sheik with the girls from Detroit.

At Washington Ken was quite a sheik with the girls from Detroit. We hear he has some addresses, so if you want one, see him.

HOWARD SINER

"RED"

"Ain't you right?"

Red is the nonchalant youth whom no teacher can scare—especially in Economics. What does he care if he does not know the answer to Mr. Ross' question. He merely folds his arms, sits back, and smiles. He is rather quiet in his other classes, however.

Red was on the football squad for two years but says his favorite sport is baseball. When asked as to his favorite pastime he replied, "Sleep." His ambition is to be able to retire at an early age—very early—and sleep happily forever.

PAUL SMITH

"SMITTY"

"I'll be doggoned."

"What ho; What ho! Do I spy a fire in yon valley. Nay, nay, 'tis only a red necktie." So speaks our fosterer, Smitty. He will enter Penn State with ambitions of being a forest ranger in Montana or some other Western state.

Smitty says his weakness is excuses to class. He has a tough time thinking them up for Mr. Ross. He also tells us that in the old days the Board of Education was a shingle, but now it is Bored of Education.

Smitty is a member of the Hi-Y and Glee Clubs and was assistant electrician in the Senior Play.

WALLACE SOMERS

"WALLY"

"What are you, a wise guy?"

We can start the class now; Wally's here. Where is your excuse, Mr. Somers? It's all right. It's only Wally late to class as per usual.

He tells us he is a one-woman man and she is a one-man woman. Well, we believe him.

Wally is a soda jerker by trade and a wise cracker by choice. He has become quite proficient at mixing wisecracks with his banana splits and pineapple sodas.

Wally belongs to the Spanish, Glee and Hi-Y Clubs and is one of our commercial students.

We don't know what he intends to do after graduation but he is sure to make some girl a good husband when he finishes his course in the "Home of Wholesome Competition."

BENJAMIN STEINLIGHT

"BENNIE"

Here is Bennie, the man of mystery. No one knows much about him. When Ben realized that South Side High School was not the place for a man of his intellect he speedily chose B.H.S. for his Alma Mater. Ben is a member of the firm of "Ben & Sid, Inc." When Ben and Sid are together, look out, for something is bound to happen. (Look out at all times.)

Ben was quite an athlete at South Side. He was on the Track Squad and starred as a pitcher on the Nine. Unfortunately he is taking six subjects and was unable to display his wares at B.H.S.

After graduating from Bloomfield High he is going far out west to Michigan University.

DOROTHEA STRUCKMAN

"Dot"

Dorothea is very sweet and quiet. But she is clever, made high school in three and a half years. She is interested in music and no doubt we shall be hearing of her talent some day.

Dorothea started in B.H.S. three years ago, and at the end of her Freshman year she left. But she did come back to us in her senior year. We don't blame her much.

Yes,—Dot doesn't have to go very far from home. She expects to enter the Montclair College next fall. Dorothea is a member of the Sphinx, Dramatic, and Glee Clubs in school.

THOMAS SULLIVAN

"SULLY"

"Sure!"

"It's a lie! It's a lie! he tricked you!" That was one line of Tom's part in the Senior Play. "Sully" was Ostrom, one of the conspirators. We hiss. However the success of the part showed Tom's acting ability, for really he is the sunniest of people. His ready smile is the best known in school.

Sully belongs to the Glee Club and was one of the cast of the Hi-Y Minstrel.

Tom is one of the letter-men on the Basketball squad and as this is being written is going 'great guns' on the Baseball nine.

His favorite study, we hear, is English.

ALPHILD SVENBERG

"AL"

"My Cow."

Alphild is one of those girls who have a wise crack for every occasion. What a jolly maiden she is. One seldom sees her serious. We wonder if she ever is.

She is the assistant humor editor of this Annual and she surely makes a good one, supplied as she is with her stock of nonsense.

Where Al is, there Flo is. Are they ever separated?

Al belongs to the Commercial Club and constantly keeps it lively. She was one of the ushers at the Senior Play. Al's favorite subject is English because that is when she gets time to enjoy her peanuts. Her favorite boy friend is an Arlington fellow named Ed. She also likes to go to Lillian's house because Howard is there. Ask Al what a "benny" is. Alphild expects to be somebody's stenog (unless she elopes with the office boy).

FLORENCE SWENSON

"Flo"

"Can you tie it?"

Flo Swenson is the humor editor of the Annual, and it isn't strange that she was chosen, for she is one of the wittiest members of our class. Full of repartee and "bon mots" she keeps those around her in giggles, chuckles, and roars.

Wherever you see Flo you're sure to see Alphild Svenberg too. What a pair they make!

Flo is on the gym team and in the commercial club. Joel is her favorite boy friend. Her hair-comb is unique. We never saw another like it. Flo made a very capable usher for the Senior play. She is going to Katharine Gibb's Secretarial School in September, and we wager she will be a very good secretary. She certainly will keep her boss in good humor, and that means a great deal.

CHARLES SYMON

"Charlie"

"It won't be long now."

Charlie was one of the boys who shifted scenery for five acts of Graustark. He has that envious quality of being capable of finishing whatever he undertakes.

We wonder how many teachers he has driven nearly frantic over the fact that he pals with Charles Simonds.

Charlie's favorite sport is football and he says his hobby is reading.

He declares himself firmly on one point. He does not care for P. D.

MAX TASGAL

"Maxie"

"Let's go!"

Well, well, here we have the comedy man of the Senior Play, who very cleverly took the part of Sitsky, the hard boiled sailor stranded in Graustark.

Max is also quite an athlete. He played varsity basketball and holds down the keystone sack on the baseball team. Sports are Maxie's favorite occupations. He is going to Jersey State Teachers College in Trenton to prepare for coaching. Perhaps we'll find him on the Red and Gray coaching staff in years to come.

Max's favorite study is English. He writes the Sports Slants column for the Student Prints.

BEATRICE TRENKLE

"Be"

A tall girl is Beatrice and a mighty nice one. Reserved but always ready to help (due perhaps to the good turn daily, is Be. She and Mandy are almost inseparable friends. These two might be termed the Class Economists, and can they cook!

"Be" is a member of the Chemistry, French, English, Latin and Home Economics Clubs, and also of the Girl Reserves. She is chairman of the Service Committee of the Girl Reserves and Vice President of the Home Economics Club.

Scouting is second nature to "Be" and she is Lieutenant of her troop as well as one of those who have received the letter of commendation.

Beatrice is going to N.J.C. where she will take a course in Home Economics and we do not fear about her future. She is the kind of girl that must succeed.

NATHAN TUREN

"NATE"

"Where's the fire to?"

Nate is one of the Three Musty Steers, to wit, Joe, Nick and Nate. Nate is a wow with the women—ask him! His favorite pastime is asking freshmen what year they are in.

He belongs to the Chemistry Club. He plans to attend Columbia where he will study accounting and business.

His favorite hobby is reading.

EUNICE VASSAR

"EUNICE"

Hail to our Eunice. She is the busiest girl in six countries, but no wonder. She's our competent Editor-in-Chief of the Student Prints, is active in the English and French clubs, Gym Team and Girl Reserves and is associate editor of this book. It's incredible to us, Eunice, how you do all these things so well, and carry your studies so successfully. Eunice is our class orator and is indeed worthy of this title. She entered the Times Oratorical Contest and won two prizes in it representing our school at Montclair. Eunice has also won several prizes for literary work during her high school career. Here's good luck to her at Montclair Teachers College.

MAX VON DER LINDEN

"BANDY"

"Tell it to the marines."

This young chap is Bandy, our aspiring aviator. His ambition is to set a new endurance record or a new record of consecutive loops. We only wish to remind him that stunt flying will stunt flying, so never leave your parachute on the ground, Bandy.

Maxie tells us that his hobby is work. Now, if he was a mattress tester for some bed company, that would sound all right but as he isn't, well, it's just hard to believe.

Bandy's favorite study is English and his weaknesses are movies and breaking test tubes in the Chem Lab.

DANIEL LA VERNE WALKER

"DANNY"

"For John's sake!"

Behold our future osteopath, Danny Walker. La Verne will follow in his dad's footsteps and study osteopathy at Kirksville. The love scenes in the Senior Play had Danny worried for a while. You know this love makes the world go around with worried expression, but he got over that and is back at his old hobby of developing pictures. We don't know what kind he develops but they must be pretty good. La Verne played a good game on the line for our championship football team and he is a member of the Glee Club and Hi-Y.

La Verne's favorite study is Geometry,—at least Miss Terhune thinks so, but his favorite pastime is driving his Buick or one of his Cadillacs.

RAY WARD

"RAY"

"H—e—y!"

Ray Ward is the nice looking young chap who played the part of Baron Dangloss in the Senior Play. Of course you couldn't recognize him because he hid himself behind a set of false whiskers. However, he was there—believe it or not.

Ray's favorite study is Economics and his pastime is taking care of Kelly. Swimming is Ray's weakness. After school Ray turns salesman for the National.

He was also Secretary of the Glee Club. Insurance is Ray's future business, probably with the Prudential.

KATHRYN WILSON

"KATHRYN"

Kathryn is one of the shining lights of the class who would die of humiliation if she ever had to take an exam. The wonderful part of it is that she is proficient in all her subjects and yet remains modest. Kathryn knows her Virgil like nobody's business, and if it weren't for her, many more Latin students would fail than do. She is active in the French Club, and was vice-president in the Latin Club. Montclair State will be lucky to have Kathryn there.

RUTHANNA WOOD

"RUTHANNA"

Quiet and reserved unless you know her well, but a steady, dependable and faithful worker is Ruthanna.

She was voted the most scientific girl in the class. Not only does she get along in sciences because they appeal to her, but also because she is precise, careful and neat, three qualities which scientific work requires. She is also a good Math and Art student.

Ruthanna is one of the two girl members of the Math Club. She belongs to the Chemistry and English Clubs and the Girls' Gym Team.

She is not sure what college she will attend but wherever she goes, science will accompany her and we would not be surprised to hear in future years of a second Madame Curie.

EVELYN WELLER

"EVE"

"How do you like it?"

Evelyn Weller with her sophisticated haircomb is one of the cutest members of the class. Always full of fun and pep, she is very popular and has many friends.

She is some shorthand whiz and can take dictation a mile a minute. She has been a great help on the cabinet and is a very lively member of the Commercial Club.

She made a very dainty, petite usher for the Senior Play. Evelyn is another authority on "ben-nies". She expects to work after graduation.

STANLEY SBIKOWSKI

"ZBI"

"Christmas sakes!"

Quiet? Yes! Bashful? Yes, bashful as they come; and what a combination for this handsome chap with the nice wavy hair. Perhaps he is holding out on us. Tell us about her, "Zbi".

Stan is a loyal member of the commercial club. He attends every meeting and backs all the activities and trips of the club.

He says his favorite sport is football. He should have demonstrated his ability to Coach Foley, instead of keeping it to himself.

Stan's goal is a Certified Public Accountant. He is aiming high and will undoubtedly hit his mark.

ALMA E. ZELIFF

"ALMA"

Alma is a quiet, shy girl around school, but we can't speak for her outside. Who knows? She has many friends in school and is well liked by all.

Office Practice is her favorite study. Reading and dancing are her hobbies and she reads most of the better modern novels as they come out.

Alma is lucky in having seen more of Washington than most of us, for she's been there several times.

Alma intends to travel after graduation and then maybe she'll settle down.

SHERMAN B. ZELIFF

"SHERM"

"Right in the money, boy!"

Big blue eyes and blonde curly hair. There is a combination, girls. Don't wish. He has a "femme" down in Washington. All bets off, girls.

Sherm upholds the honor of the second basses in the Glee Club and is also a member of the Hi-Y.

Sherm was lucky. It didn't cost him anything to go to Washington and he had a car to drive around in, which is more than Al Hart or La Verne Walker could get.

Sherm is another one of the boys in the Great A. & P. Grocery Co. His ambition is to be an aviator. Quite a change from his present cash and carry position.

CLASS PROPHECY

AS THE train sped North, I inquired of Conductor Keith Benson how long it would be before we would reach Point Barrow. He asserted that Teeny Martin and Sal Finnerty were working steadily to keep the boilers hot. After our arrival in the station we managed to hitch a ride down the platform on Max Tasgal's electric baggage hauler during the course of which we almost ran down Howard Gerhart, who was looking for hot-boxes under the mail car. Upon entering the station who should we see, skillfully mixing sodas and soft drinks behind a glistening counter but Wallie Somers, Ligget's own. Now and then he would direct some tourist over to a desk where Alphild Svenberg bellowed forth instructions which made more than one bewildered traveler see the light. Since I couldn't make up my mind what to do I went over and bought a paper from Phil Dodge, who was at the time teaching Fatso Arbuckle to make change for him. Turning to the theatrical page, I found that the bill at Jake Masin's Society Vaudeville House looked rather interesting, since, at the time Nick Sica was doing his sheik act in a two-reel desert romance. To make it more alluring Nat Turen was booked to do his mysterious disappearing act while Alfred Canfield and John Hepburn struck off a hotsy-totsy duet from the balcony. This was just too good so after checking my luggage with Chas. McNeely, I hustled out to stop a taxi. Al Gribben came wheeling along in a Toytown Pushmobile and offered to give me a lift as far as the gas held out. With no thoughts of impending disaster I tumbled into the back seat where Harold Pierson and Arnold Appleyard started to pinch me unmercifully which was no way for gentlemen to act. It proved too much for me so I drew my Radiostatic Projector Repeller Automatic manufactured by John

Marsh & Co., and laid the villains low. When I arrived at the theatre I was assisted to the side walk by John Durr, all dressed up in a door-man's uniform and not far away was Dorothy "Baby" Bunting, selling tickets for the big show. I was soon reminded of old times as through the combined efforts of Eileen Gibson and Claire Luthy, Senior Play usherettes, I found my seat. Scarcely had I seated myself when Andy Ralston came out before the footlights all dressed up in dainty tights and proceeded to do fancy acts on the flying trapeze. This was too much for Lennie Shomell who snatched Marg Dunn's trumpet and blew sour notes at the two ducks in the balcony. All of a sudden every one was startled by a resounding crash which announced the falling of the roof. Closely following the roof came Stanley Zbikowski, wearing the Aviators' kowski in a mammoth helicopter. Both boys were wearing the Aviators' Safety Suit manufactured by S. S. Donenfeld, Inc. When questioned by chief of police Heckel they claimed that they had brought the wrong Tom Swift book. Loretta Mosely, Florence Svenson and Dorothy Kinkel three of the most intelligent girls in the chorus, claimed the theatre looked like the Bloomfield High Auditorium after the architects set to work on it in '28. That sort of put an end to the show so as I started to make my way out through the debris who should I meet but Al Hart, at the time engaged in flicking a speck of dust from his shoes. Not far away was Bob Cunliffe who had grown bigger than ever. Arriving at the avenue, I was just in time to catch a horse car, but I had my troubles boarding it because Motorman Dominic Di Nito was busy straightening out the snarls in the horses' tails and a basket party had boarded the car anxious to start on their picnic. Among them were Florence Acocella, Adaline Boardman, David Allen, Dorothea Struckman and Leo Aranoff. After I had aided in settling the matter the car finally got under way. At the next corner we came upon an imposing storefront which housed Point Barrow's leading pool-room, run by Edward Campbell. Imagine our embarrassment when we saw an animated dice game in progress in the entrance, the participants being Art Coons, Herman Felber and Ray Hyde. The game was momentarily interrupted when Allan Jackes was forcibly ejected from the second story window of Bernice Lyon's School of Dancing. Dr. Mazzucchelli was called to take care of the case, and we all moved off down the street, doffing our hats to Eunice Vassar and Evelyn Weller who were flipping pancakes in the window of Zelliff's Food Emporium. The day had proved to be hot even for Point Barrow so we all dropped in at Max Von der Linden's Beer Garden for a couple of snockers of Mavis. After checking our hats with Lillian Lee, we filed in to the tables and sat down. Quicker than you could say Benjamin S. Stienlight we were being waited on by three portly waiters who looked suspiciously like Max Faelton, Fred Scheiber and Howard Siner, and that's who they were.

After we finished our repast we trooped out coming face to face with Roy Gibson, sandwich man for Muriel Ackerman "My Lady's Tailor" (Patented). I left my friend at the next corner, expecting to take a short walk through the park before returning to my hotel. I had gone but a short way, however, before my progress was impeded by a crowd of people. The mellow voice of Frank Brennan was extolling the virtues of the Carmichael-Conklin Cleansing Compound. The ignorant populace seemed to be buying the concoction at a great rate and kept Gladys Keeting busy ringing up the fares on a Hepburn Automatic Cash Register. I tarried but a moment and soon found myself among the beauties of the park. And I'm not referring to Charlie Symon and Kennie Leith who were playing knife under an oak tree. It was becoming dark and rather chilly so after a short talk with the park caretaker, Dannie Walker, and his wife, the former Miss Gladys Giering, I returned to the hotel. After a delightful dinner in the grillroom where I noticed Jane Kellner and Ruth Cook in animated conversation, I purchased a Robert Beers Panatella Special from Thelma Lawless in the lobby and went out onto the veranda to have a smoke before retiring. By that time night had fallen and as I settled myself in a porch chair, I noticed the electric lights were now brightly blinking on Kaufmann's Lyric Theatre across the way. I thought for a moment of attending the movie "Corbett's Last Fight" with Thos. Sullivan and the Doress Sisters, but the prices were too high. Thinking better of it I purchased the Point Barrow Daily Bugle and a couple of magazines and retired to my room. Priscilla Porter carried my bags and Dot Corcoran ran the elevator with a good deal of eclat. My room proved to be delightful and if it had not been for offensive odors of the Brink-Benson Soap Factory next door I could have asked for nothing better. Settling myself I prepared to read the copy of the Point Barrow Daily Bugle. The Bugle, Art Eriksen's first venture into the publishing field, appeared to be a very interesting paper. While turning the pages I could not help admiring his selection of editors and authors. Here was Ruthanna Wood conducting a column, "Advice to the Lovelorn." Edith Hahn's interesting little articles I knew had many readers. On every page or two appeared one of Paul Lawrence's poems. Two whole columns were devoted to Marie Catherine Nuse's style hints and fashion supplement. Turning back to the front page I prepared to digest my share of the day's news. Here was a picture of Charles O'Conner who had just been appointed chief warden at Sing Sing. Learned that Ken Simonds and Nathan Turen were considerably disappointed at being rejected. They will no doubt find their way in somehow, however. Bold black letters told the story of Beatrice Trenkle's breach of promise suit—the eternal triangle again, with Ray Ward and Angela Reichmann as the other two. Lois Ernst and Evelyn Garlock were starting on a non-stop flight to the Phillipines, while Maxine Gatenby had swum the English Channel for the 17th consecutive time. Alma Allis had entered the semi-final of the International Beauty contest at Galveston. Muriel Crawford and Dorothy Clubb were still in the running. Anna Milbank had just been elected President of the W. C. T. U. at their annual meeting in Trenton. The leading speaker was Don Cook who delivered an oration upon the harmful effects of Alcoholic Beverages. Ruth Olson's touching oration on the terrible conditions in Hoboken brought tears to the eyes of the audience and presaged the early removal of James De Mai, the Mayor.

Another article told of the progress of Elizabeth Oston and Lillian Green in their dash across the country on a bicycle built for two.

The book page had a good word for Alma Zelliff's latest novel and Jessie Hurst's autobiography of Madeline Emmons was also complimented. The strains of a radio drifted in from the room below. Sarah Sacks and the three little Sackses were signing off to make room for Marion Smith's piano recital. Lois Fornoff was announcing the program.

I decided to have a look at the sporting page and then turn in. Bob Miller had pitched the Newark Bears to a glorious victory over Park Grammar School. Leon Karas was playing short for Park Grammar.

Stanley Horrocks was hit on the head by a pitched ball and had to be carried, squealing from the park. David Allen and Paul Smith did the honors.

Eileen Brueche and Dorothea Beckenthal were praised for their feat in scaling the precipitous sides of the Watsessing Mountains. The Ruth Lane Expedition failed in its attempt. Alice Ball and Margaret Plambeck had reached the finals of the International Tiddly Winks Tournament at Prides Crossing, Mass. Hazel Audsley, Ruth Briggs and Kathryn Wilson were far out in the Atlantic in their attempt to cross it in a row boat.

I put down the paper and rang for some ice water. Hardly a moment had elapsed before W. Elliot Simms popped in the door with it. After a satisfying draught I climbed into bed, thinking what a tough job it is to write one of these class prophecies.

JUNIOR PROM

ON DECEMBER 27, the Juniors gave the Seniors the Annual Prom. It is one of the many pleasant memories of our High School days.

It was held in the new Boys' Gym, which was decorated from floor to ceiling with huge colored curtains. These covered the entire gym except the balcony end. From this balcony Bill Stanley and his orchestra poured forth rhythmical music. The crowd of four hundred was entertained between dances by the Lippie Kutie Kids and Louis Ferguson.

The committee consisted of E. Davidson, C. Stone, J. Schieferly, E. Carlson, J. Leiss, L. Dobrowolski, J. Davis, D. Raisbeck, T. Pooley, A. Dyal, D. Hill and L. Bell.

They certainly made a success of it. Dance orders were given out at the door and the boys had a busy night filling them out.

"GRAUSTARK"

THE whole of a magnificent court dressed in regal costumes stood gravely about. Powerful statesmen and royal ambassadors had already passed a death sentence on the young American hero who had sallied far from his native land in search of his lady.

The outlook was dark for Grenfall Lorry, the gentleman in question. Powerful though she was, even his lady-love, the Queen, could not save him. The atmosphere was tense. Silence over-came the court. Then sharply, incisively, came the words, "I can produce the guilty man." Harry Anguish, bosom friend of Mr. Lorry, had spoken. "Prince Gabriel," he continued, "why do you shake so?"

That was merely one point of interest, one highlight in Graustark, presented in the auditorium on May 23 and 24.

It was, as a senior play, the most auspicious performance ever undertaken by Coach A. Dixi Crosby. There were five acts and the cast was the largest of any preceding of the semi-annual plays.

Grenfall Lorry, played by Robert Miller, and his friend, handsome Harry Anguish, otherwise Robert Cunliffe, have come all the way to Edelweiss from America in search of a fair young Miss Guginslocker. Imagine their surprise to discover that the young lady is none other than beautiful Yetive, the Princess of Graustark. This part was taken by Gladys Giering. Young Mr. Anguish was not at all disappointed in Edelweiss, for he was immediately attracted by the exotic Countess Dagmar, played by the most attractive Alma Allis.

In the first act the two "Cook's Tourists" accidentally overhear a plot to abduct the Princess. The foul villain who hatched this vile plot was Prince Gabriel of Dawsbergen, portrayed by "Rabbi" Finnerty. His henchmen were Ostrom, guard to Gabriel, alias Thomas H. Sullivan and Danox, guard to Yetive, otherwise Frank Martin. Loretto Mosely acted the part of Countess Yvonne, Princess Yetive's aunt, and the Americans were delighted to find that Sitsky, the bell boy at the hotel, played by Max Tasgal, also hailed from the U. S. A. Baron Dangloss or Raymond R. Ward was the protector of Princess Yetive.

Because Graustark was bankrupt, Yetive had promised to marry Prince Lorenz, portrayed by Charles L. O'Connor, the son of the ruler of Axphaine, a neighboring country. This part was played by Fred Scheiber.

A great part of the success of the performance was due to the acting and wonderful costumes of the whole cast. The large size of the class permitted the having of many court people and extras.

This fact combined with the beautiful scenery produced one of the most unusual plays ever attempted in B. H. S.

IN MEMORIAM

We present this page in loving memory of one of our members, THEODORE SUTTON, JR., whose death occurred November 10, 1929.

OUR WASHINGTON TRIP

WHAT a trip! On May eighth the Senior Class, 85-strong, en-trained for Washington. With two special coaches to play with, we did every thing but bring the Eskimos down and make them plant cotton.

We arrived at the Union Station safely, however, and were driven to the hotel in special busses. Here we were assigned rooms and soon left on a sight-seeing trip through the city. We saw most of the Diplomatic Buildings, Arlington Cemetery and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Some of the girls couldn't see any further than the young and good-looking guide.

We returned about six-thirty and dressed for dinner. Get that. We had to wear coats and ties at all meals, no sweaters allowed. However, it was worth it. Every meal was fit for a king, and we all did justice to them.

That evening we visited the Congressional Library. Here we saw the original copies of the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence. After nine o'clock we scattered over the city and took in the sights. Slowly we straggled home, some early and some not so early.

The next morning some of the more ambitious Senior boys were up at four-thirty. By five-fifteen they had dressed and were off for an early morning stroll. They were back by six-thirty however and at seven breakfast was served. The White House and the Treasury were our first stops and the temptation in the latter almost caused a riot. Next came the Smithsonian Institute which everybody enjoyed. The variety of articles was a source of amazement to all, as they had everything from a needle to aeroplanes; the latter were suspended from the ceiling. Washington's Monument claimed us next and if you saw a puffing and perspiring Senior leaning against the wall you knew that he had walked up.

After lunch trolleys conveyed us to the waterfront where a steamer lay waiting for us. We steamed up to Mt. Vernon where Washington's Home is. Here we had the class picture taken.

That night a dance was given us by the hotel. Some of the Seniors preferred other diversion so all were not there. However it was a good dance and lasted quite late. When we returned to our rooms we found all of our pillows were missing. After a vain search of all the other rooms we turned in.

Breakfast was served at seven the next morning. Huge sight-seeing buses awaited us in front of the hotel. These conveyed us to Annapolis where we were just in time to see the Cadets on parade. The grounds were very pretty as was the lake. The ride was enjoyed by all even to the accident where the bus went off the road. However, no damage was incurred.

That afternoon we packed up and bade farewell to Washington.

SENIOR B CLASS

President	JACK DAVIS
Vice-President	CAROL ALLING
Secretary	DORIS RAISBECK
Treasurer	THOMAS POOLEY

OUR class, although small, has been successful in the activities which it has undertaken this spring. Our candy sale was held in March, and our annual dance which proved to be quite satisfactory was held in May. This all goes towards the trips to Washington which we plan to make next fall.

We reelected Mildred Harrington and David Hill to represent us on the Student Council.

In sports we were represented in basketball by Jack Davis. Douglas Appleyard, Douglas Freeman and Jack Davis are active candidates for track. The 12 B girls' basketball team won the 1929-30 inter-class championship, for which each member received a silver basketball.

The class is small but is well supported by its members. There is not news about us at present, but more will be heard next fall when we are Senior A's.

JUNIOR A CLASS

President	FRANK BELDOWSKI
Vice-President	JEAN THOMAS
Secretary	EMAGENE EARLE
Treasurer	FRANCES BLANKELEY
Adviser	MISS ANNE SMITH

THE class is very fortunate to have for its adviser, Miss Anne Smith. She is a busy lady but shares some of her valuable time with our class.

A pleasing story about our friends is related as follows:

Miss Smith called a Porter at Penn. Station to Courter to the Pullman cars, for she was en-route to St. Johnsbury East, Vermont, where she was to spend her vacation.

The scenery was beautiful. It was a warm day of departing June. Robbins and Crowes were visible everywhere. Also Brooks and Marshes could be distinguished in the passing panorama. With her Cameron her arm, steadily, Miss Smith took numerous pictures.

At noon the Cook announced that the Cox were roasted and that the Fuess-t was served.

"Diner in the rear," called Thom-as he disgustedly hurried to fix a Leake in a Braun new water faucet.

As the Earle de Nagy passed our heroine, she nearly lost her Hart. The Handy glass of water saved her for this moment.

"Halstrom en Kusler," he mumbled.

"Hayes there a Hendy Pierson around this place? I have lost my (B-Wrongsky). My Hazard is great."

"Yes, my Oblsen is near," replied Tom.

"Good tell him to Beeoff at once in search of it."

With a Kane, Williams, Thomson poked under the berth. Sure enough the key was there.

In his delight the Earle noticed our friend. And so the Pollack from abroad spoke to our own teacher.

That night in a Booth in the Beldowski Inn, our hero telephoned Ennis clever way to a friend called Cranse.

"Have the Turen Carsoon at the station. We have arrived."

To his surprise the Messrs. Healy, Quinn, Krenrich, and Woletz with the Misses Jones, Eagleson, Babbage, Guego, Weston, and Pfeffer came to meet them.

It was a Bliss-ful night. But when the gentleman on short acquaintance made the proposal, the lady said decisivelsy,

"No Marriott for me."

JUNIOR B CLASS

President	ERNIE DAVIDSON
Vice-President	LEON DOBOROWOLSKI
Treasurer	JOHN LEISS
Secretary	JAMES BRIDGE
Class Adviser	MISS MABEL JENKINS

THE biggest event this term was the reception of the class rings which was brought about by the earnest efforts of Miss Jenkins, Leon Doborowski and Joe Schieferly.

We are still represented on the Student Council by Russ Forrest and Elsie Carlson.

Our class is not lacking in athletes as we are represented on the diamond by Armer Armstrong and Harold "Katz" Miano who holds down the hot corner for B. H. S. The track team has many Juniors who strut their stuff before Mr. Mason the coach. Some of them are Ernie Davidson, our president, Johnny Cleary, Blaine Carman, and Don Pollitt.

Our class is looking forward for bigger and better events next term.

SOPHOMORE A CLASS

President	ADA DANIELS
Vice-President	NAOMI DALZELL
Treasurer	ALBERT MARSH
Secretary	JOSEPH MOORE

THE class of 1932 has been very active in student activities during the past year, under the able leadership of the class officers.

The class held a very successful Valentine Dance, also a candy sale in May. On May seventh a "Parents' Party" was held in the Girls' Gym. Talented members of the class entertained. Refreshments were served.

Included among the members of this class is perhaps the most versatile athlete of the High School—Frank Schumell. Not far behind him in athletic prowess are Tommy Adams, Johnny Reid, Jimmy Whalen, Russ Fischer and Julius Garriga.

The class wishes to take this opportunity to thank Miss Terry for her kind advice and guidance during the school year.

CLASS OF FEBRUARY 1933

President	NEWELL RAND
Vice-President	EDWARD KREBS
Secretary	EDYTHE KOLTER
Treasurer	JOSEPH STIVALE
Class Adviser	MR. M. KLEIN

ALTHOUGH only a year and a half old, the class of '33 has shown the real school spirit in athletic and social activities.

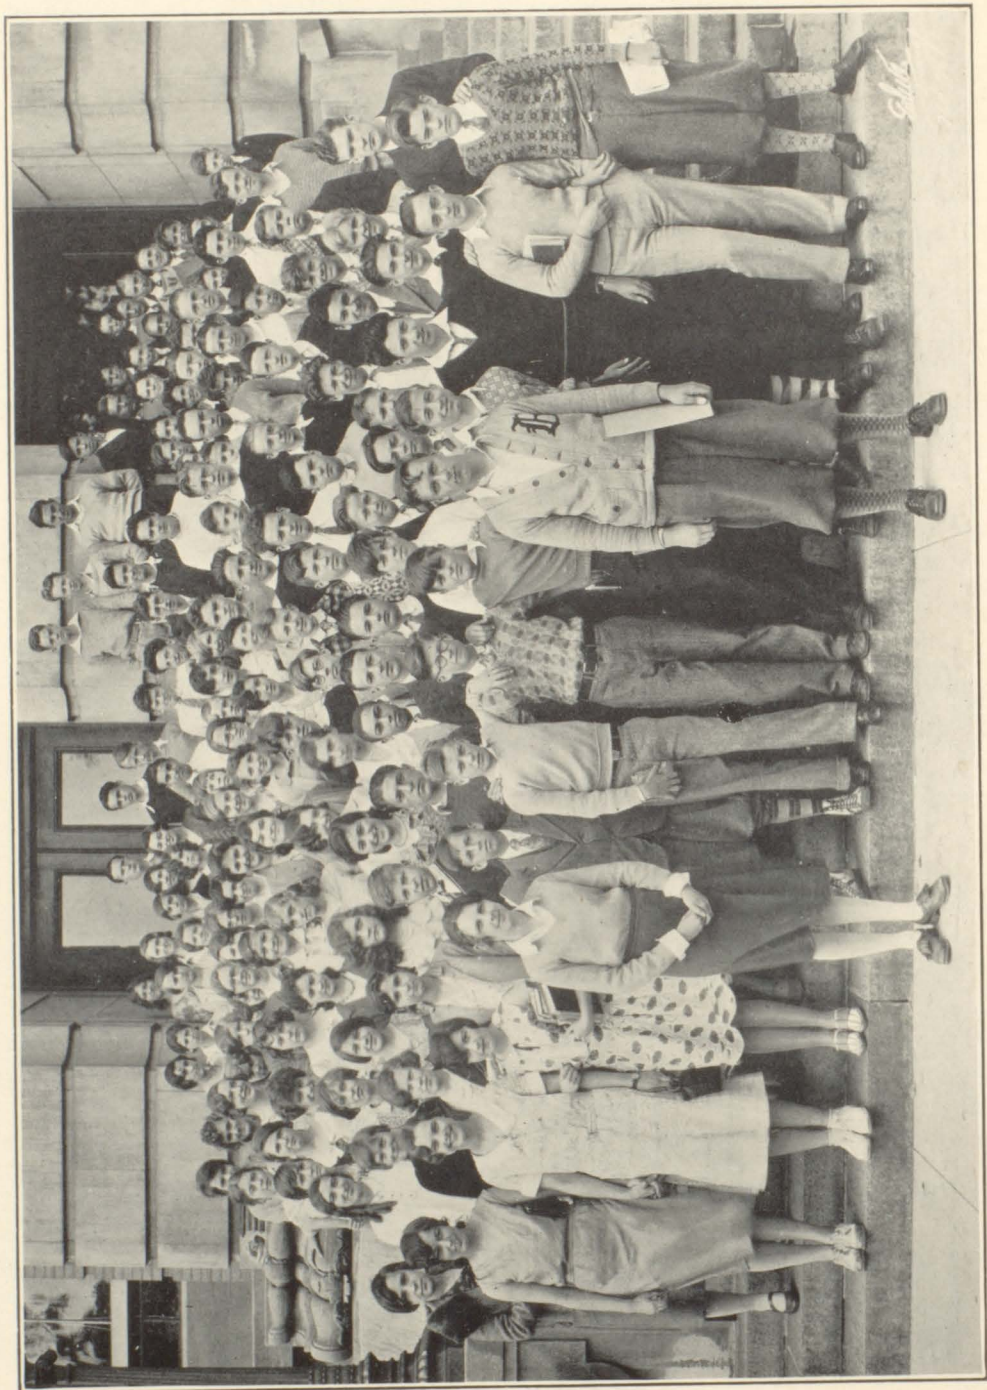

Our candy sale and theatre party were most successful, and added greatly to our treasury. We hope that later undertakings will prove as successful.

We are represented on the Student Council by Kathleen Morris and Fred H. Davis.

Many members, both boys and girls, are making fine records for themselves on the school athletic teams as well as in their school work. Our class is proud to have Elizabeth Hultberg who has twice received the highest average in the school.

All the work the class has done is due to our hard-working class adviser, Mr. Klein. Mr. Klein has done much to obtain money so that we might do many things in our later High School days.

The class acknowledges the self-sacrificing activity of its adviser and wishes to thank him whole-heartedly and sincerely.

FRESHMAN A CLASS

THE 9 A Class was organized in September of this year with about 260 members, composed of students from Park, the parochial and Cedar Grove schools.

At the first class meeting held in September, the following officers were chosen: President, Wallace McNary; Vice-President, William Burger; Secretary, Helen Ammerman; Treasurer, William Potts.

Soon after we were organized we were asked to prepare an entertainment for our parents and teachers. After only a short preparation we held this entertainment in the Assembly followed by eats in the cafeteria. It was the first of a series of such entertainments and was voted very successful.

During the month of November we conducted our candy sale and by selling candy at the Montclair rally on Thanksgiving Eve we cleared about $40.00.

In March we held a very successful dance. In spite of the fact that it was Lent we cleared $30.00.

Although we are only Freshmen we have about $200.00 in our treasury and our aim is to have about $75.00 more before the end of school.

If we are treated as nicely the succeeding three years as we have been this first year I am sure we will leave B. H. S. with many fond memories.

FRESHMAN B CLASS

President	ANDREW HARRISON
Vice-President	DOROTHY CUNARD
Secretary	LAURA SPAETH
Treasurer	NELLIE DOBROWOLSKI
Class Adviser	EDITH M. ALBINSON

THE last freshman class is inferior to none—in size, merit or pep. We have the honor of having the first honor pupil of the boys amidst our number, not to mention much promising material for athletics, dramatics and music. This is verified by our membership on the varsity baseball team and the attractive program presented at the Parents' Party given on May 14.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS

MISS HOUGH—"There'll be several people enjoying a late lunch today."

MR. ROSS—"You may be prepared for a test tomorrow."

MR. FOLEY—"You'll have plenty of time to finish it."

LILLIAN LEE—"How do you like it?"

KENNETH LEITH—"How's the humor coming on?"

DOROTHY CORCORAN—"What are you saying now? I'll bet you're talking about me."

ROBERT MILLER—(In P. D.) "I didn't read that chapter yet."

FLORENCE SWENSON—"You did not give us any homework."

ROBERT CUNLIFFE—"What's the latest dirt?"

ALPHILD SVENBERG—"Let's be late for P. D."

DONALD COOK—"Yeah, that's right, Mr. Ross."

LORETTA MOSELEY—"Well—this part's better than not being in the play at all."

WALLACE SOMERS—"Taking me for a sleigh ride?"

GLADYS GIERING—"Oh gee— I don't know."

ALFRED CANFIELD—"What a woman!"

EVELYN WELLER—"You nutsy Fagans!"

DAVID ALLEN—"You tell 'em, Miss Hough."

CLAIRE LUTHY—"All right—if you want to."

JACK DURR—"It's a woman's duty!"

MARARET PLAMBACK—"My cow—no!"

KENNETH SIMONDS—"How's tricks, kid?"

LOIS ERNST—"Well—Mr. Salisbury says so—"

MAX TASGAL—"Hey—get away from my baby!"

BLOOMFIELD HI-Y

President	ROBERT CUNLIFFE
Vice-President	HAROLD PIERSON
Secretary	ERNIE DAVIDSON
Treasurer	ROBERT MILLER
Adviser	MR. J. SALSURY

THIS organization is made up of a group of high school boys who are banded together with this purpose: To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. A majority of the Hi-Y members are very active in school sports, and many are officers in their different classes.

Their annual Father and Son dinner was one of the best ever held by the club, and the Hi-Y minstrel was a big success. Several meetings this term have been given to such speakers as Mr. Parnell of the New Jersey Law School, Dr. Poling of Bloomfield and Father Hogan of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

At this time we wish to express our gratitude to Mr. Salsbury, to the Y. M. C. A., to the office, to Miss Sayles and her helpers, and to all others who have helped to make this term so successful.

THE GIRL RESERVES

President	MURIEL ACKERMAN
Vice-President	MURIEL CRAWFORD
Secretary	GERTRUDE CARR
Treasurer	MARGARET PHILLIPS
Faculty Advisor	MARJORIE S. WATTS

THE Girl Reserves came back with a bang this Spring. For many months the club had been dissolved until the girls voluntarily organized again. At the first meeting they decided to make it a "live-wire" club or none at all. With this spirit they have done a great deal to benefit B. H. S. Among several of their helpful activities carried on they have given out books in assembly, helped Mr. Poole with the stock, helped in the Cafeteria and run errands during the study periods.

The interest aroused in the club can be seen by the fact that the membership quota was filled and a large waiting list made.

The Girl Reserves feel such gratitude for all that their adviser, Miss Watts, has done towards bringing them together and making it pleasant for the members that they would like to take this time to thank her.

Many of the officers and members are graduating this June—Come out next year; girls; there'll be lots of room for you.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

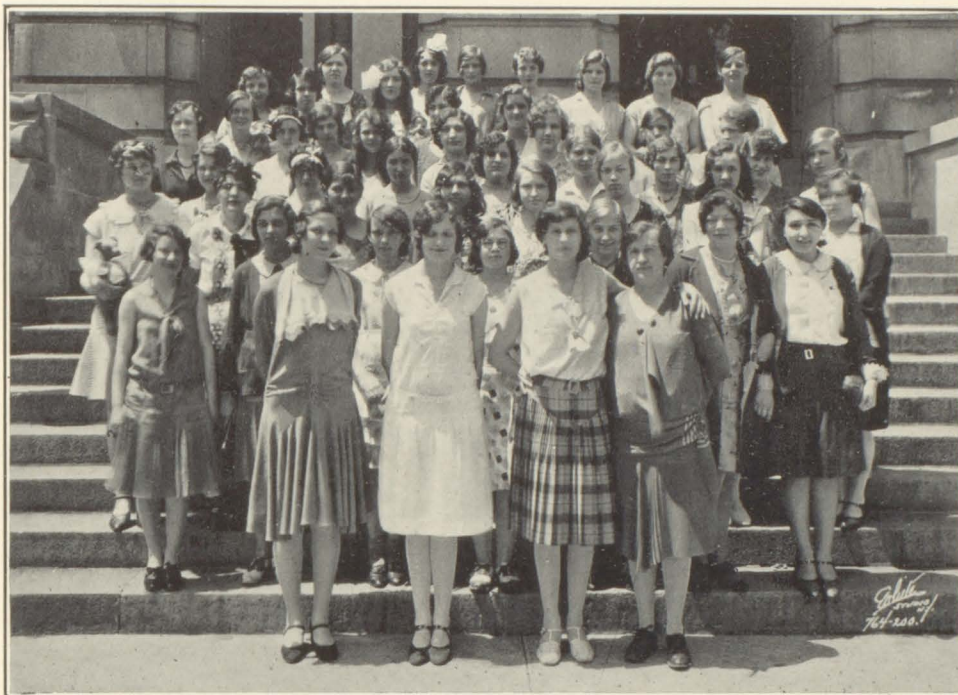

President ROBERT BEERS
Vice-President ARTHUR ERIKSEN
Librarian KENNETH SIMONDS

BECAUSE of the conscientious work of Mr. Crosby, and the interest and faithfulness of the members, the Glee Club has been very successful for the past six months.

Mr. Crosby will be hard hit in June, when eighteen of the experienced singers graduate. The greatest loss will be that of Bob Beers who has been the accompanist of the Glee Club for three consecutive years. A boy as good as Bob at tickling the ivories, and working in general for the good of the club will be difficult to replace.

Regardless of losing the seniors, the prospects for the new term are good. Many new voices are expected to come out in September and several good choir singers have already signed up for the new term.

The graduating seniors thank Mr. Crosby for his efforts in making the club successful, and wish him all the luck in the world for bigger and better Glee Clubs in Bloomfield High School.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

President	GERTRUDE B. CARR
Secretary	LILLIAN B. ERDMAN
Treasurer	DOROTHY BUNTING
Librarian	LOUISE KIERNAN
Director	EDITH M. ALBINSON

AS USUAL the Girls' Glee Club has had a very active year. Under the able direction of Miss Albison, the girls spend an enjoyable period each Thursday singing favorite songs and at the same time learning part singing.

At our first business meeting this semester, pins were selected and purchased by nearly all of the members. Plans were also made for the concert which was given in March.

This concert was one of the outstanding events of the year. It was given by the combined music clubs of the high school. We also had the pleasure of singing at the High School concert during the National Music Week Festival in May.

The thanks of the members of the organization are given to Miss Albison for the time and trouble she takes in her work with us.

LATIN CLUB

Honorary Presidents, MISS MAUDE C. GAY, MR. EDSON LAWRENCE

President MARGARET DUNN

Vice-President KATHRYN WILSON

Secretary ISABELLE BIRNIE

Treasurer JOSEPH DE MAI

THE Latin Club of B. H. S., always a line wire organization, has achieved many successes this year.

Of course, we first make mention of the Latin Banquet in the cafeteria on March 14, 1930. At this we commemorated the two thousandth anniversary of the birth of Virgil, the famous Roman poet so well known to all senior Latin students. We were not alone in this celebration as the memory of this great ancient is being honored all over the world this year.

Another of our achievements is the completion of the Museum in Miss Gay's room where quite a display is open to anyone in school who may be interested.

We trust all the students remember the day the Latin Club took charge of Assembly and showed the slides on "Virgil and His Time." We know that they were and are of particular interest to the Latin students. Besides these, the club has had some other fine slides and a moving picture show during club meetings.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

Adviser	OTTO J. WALRATH
President	FRED SCHEIBER
Vice-President	WILLARD HECKEL
Secretary and Treasurer	NICHOLAS SICA....

THE Chemistry Club has been as active as usual this year. The first meeting was devoted to the election of officers.

One of the most interesting meetings of the year was conducted by Mr. R. P. Haggerty who was from the Western Union Telegraph Company. He gave a very interesting talk on trans-Atlantic cables.

In May Dr. John Schmidt of the Bakelite Co. gave an interesting talk on bakelite. The talk was accompanied by moving pictures. From this lecture we learned of the great number of uses to which this Bloomfield product may be put.

In March many interesting experiments were performed by Art Mazzucchelli, Joe Brink, and the incomparable Charles Pemberton Grant.

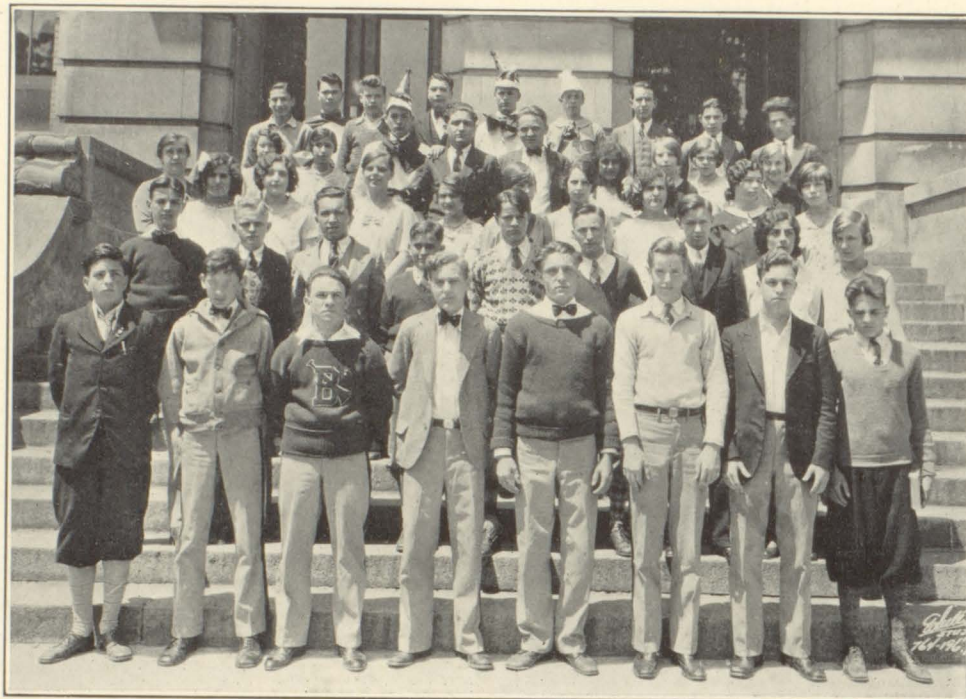

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Honorary President	MISS HEARTZ
President	MARION SMITH
Vice-President	MARGARET PHILLIPS
Secretary	MAXINE ZWERLING
Treasurer	GLADYS GIERING

THE French Club has held its regular monthly meetings with educational topics. This year, the members have striven to know what to look for when one travels in France. The meetings always ended with interesting games and refreshments. One project undertaken by the club was to fill a Treasure Chest to be sent to the Filipino children.

The climax of the season was in the form of a picnic to Cherry Lane.

B. H. S. ORCHESTRA

THE High School Orchestra now numbers 45. Besides playing at all school functions—assemblies and commencement, we have played at South Side High, at the Night School Graduation, and at the concert of the combined musical clubs of the school.

With the help of our new leader, who took us to hear the National High School Orchestra at Carnegie Hall, New York, we have added to our repertoire.

The first and most successful concert was given at the formal opening of the High School. We played the well known Lustpiel Overture.

MATH CLUB

Honorary President	MR. HAUPIN
President	ARTHUR ERIKSEN
Vice-President	MARGARET PHILLIPS
Secretary and Treasurer	STANLEY HORROCKS

IF YOU are interested in Mathematics or in solving difficult problems, join the Math Club. Anyone who has taken two and one-half years of mathematics is eligible. This year there are twenty-three active members.

A meeting of this club is held on the third Tuesday of every month. At these meetings the members of the club solve many difficult problems. Often at the meetings they are shown short easy methods of solving such problems.

Once a year, in the spring, the club is invited to Mr. Haupin's home in the country. There, every one has a fine time. All the members go swimming in the river before they return to enjoy the refreshments.

This club is supported by many members of the faculty. Mr. Haupin, Mr. Koehler, Miss Terhune, and Miss Decker are active supporters of the club.

Come and join the Math Club

SPHINX CLUB

President	LOIS FORNOFF
Vice-President	FRED CRANSE
Secretary	GEORGE PIERSON
Treasurer	ALBERT NAGY
Adviser	MR. C. ROSS

THE first meeting of the Sphinx Society took place on February 3, 1930, at which time the election of officers was held. During the term the following events took place: the initiation of twenty-five new members, Miss Schubert's talk on Europe, Sphinx Research Medal contest with Ruth Bickel as winner, and to close the season, Dr. Poling as a guest speaker.

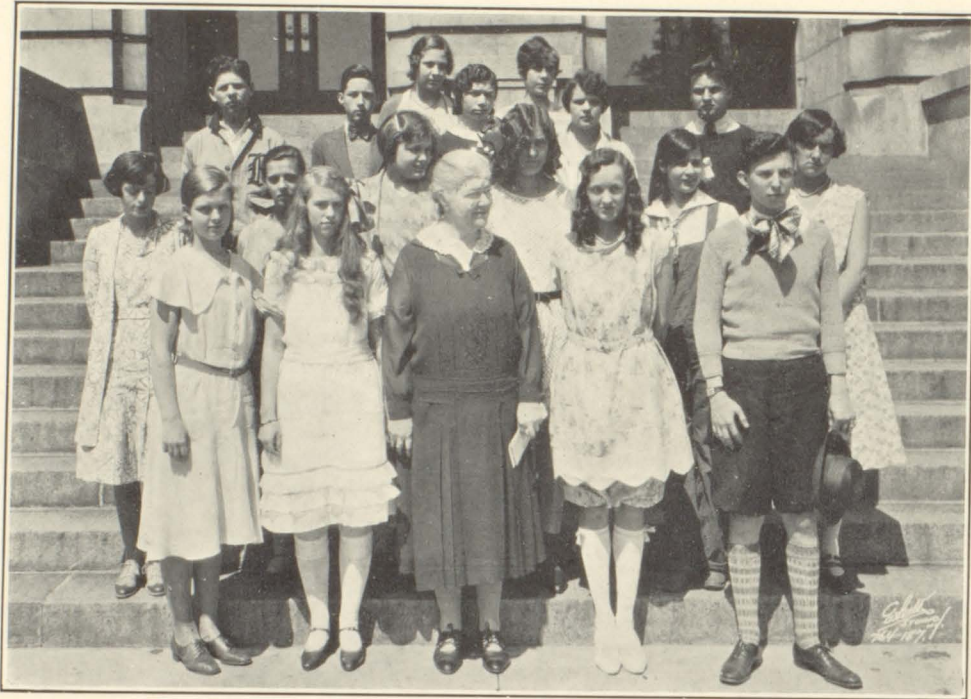

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

President	RUTH OHLSON
Vice-President	BEATRICE TRENKLE
Secretary	MADELINE EMMONS
Treasurer	ALMA BERON
Adviser	MISS C. SCHAUFFLER

THE Home Economics Club has had a very successful term and the club owes much of its success to the club adviser, Miss Schauffler.

In addition to our regular monthly meetings the club has had several special activities. Last March a supper was given in the Teachers' Cafeteria. The alumnae were the guests. This supper was such fun that the girls wanted another. The second one was prepared by Miss Sayles and given in June. In May we had a picnic at Millburn which was also very successful.

Although it may seem that this club does nothing but eat, and although the club has done nothing to raise money since February, it is ready to pay the last of its pledge for the Organ Fund.

THE ENGLISH CLUB

President MARY LENZ
Vice-President ELLIOTT SIMMS
Secretary and Treasurer LOUISE HAZARD

THE English Club is a small but congenial group. This club is the founder of the school paper, "The Student Prints." The English Club has had an interesting year. We have had several good speakers and the club went to New York to see "Berkeley Square." The interests of the English Club are, of course, new books, poetry, drama, and all good literature. Upon the retirement of Miss Smith, Mrs. Doyle became adviser in June.

SPANISH CLUB

President	ANTOINETTE CASALE
Vice-President	LOUISE FULTON
Secretary	EDNA VAN RIPER
Treasurer	MAY PIERSON

THE Spanish Club, a group of sixty-one boys and girls, has been, as usual, very active this year. We have had many delightful educational programs supplemented by social programs and trips.

Each year in February the Spanish Club takes its annual trip to New York, to either the Metropolitan Museum or the Spanish Museum.

In June the Spanish and Commercial Clubs unite in a trip to Camp Demarest. This is an event which both clubs are looking forward to.

In November we hold our annual Thanksgiving Party at the Community House, which has always proved to be a huge success.

To be a Spanish Club member one must be a 10 A student and must be taking Spanish.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

President	LOIS ERNEST
Vice-President	EDNA VAN RIPER
Secretary	ETHEL SKINNER
Treasurer	ANTOINETTE CASALE

Because of other outside activities, many members of the Commercial Club have been unable to attend the meetings.

However, we hope, in the near future that we may again have meetings that are well attended.

GERMAN CLUB

Honorary President	MISS ZINN
President	JOANNA MULLER
Vice-President	VINCENT ZERGIEBEL
Secretary-Treasurer	ELSIE FREIDHOF

THE purpose of the German Club is to promote interest in the study of German by taking trips to places or by doing things at the meetings in connection with Germany.

During the term the members of the club went on two trips—one a “Doggie Roast” and the other to the S. S. Bremen while it was docked at the North German Lloyd Pier in Brooklyn. The members are planning another trip, a picnic, before the close of school.

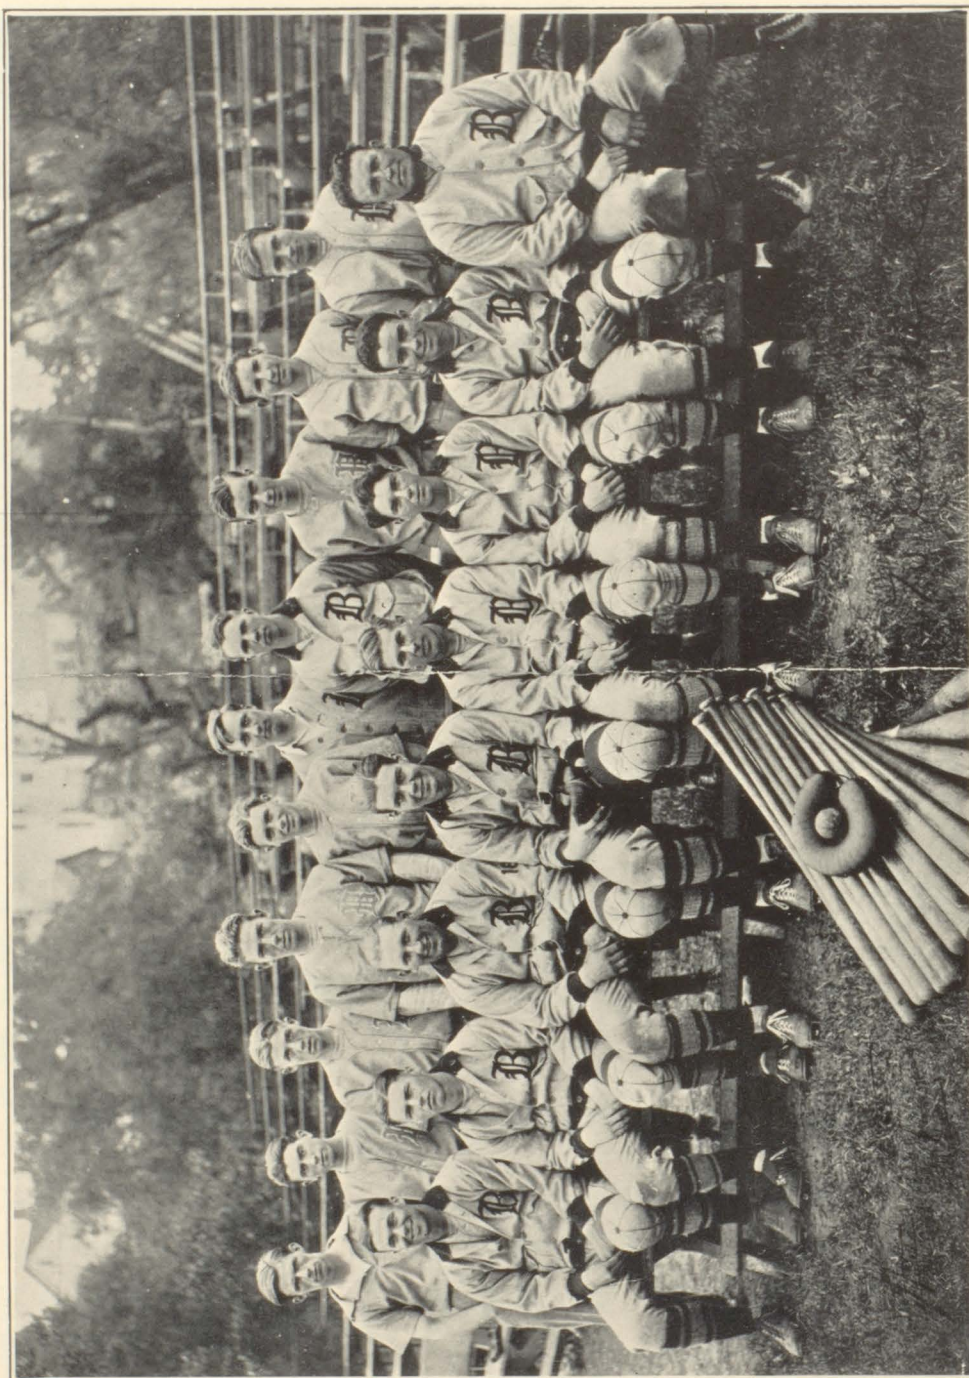

Because of the small membership of the club an amendment to the constitution is to be made, a step which will enable more students to join. However, the club’s treasury and activities are growing in spite of its small membership.

SPORTS

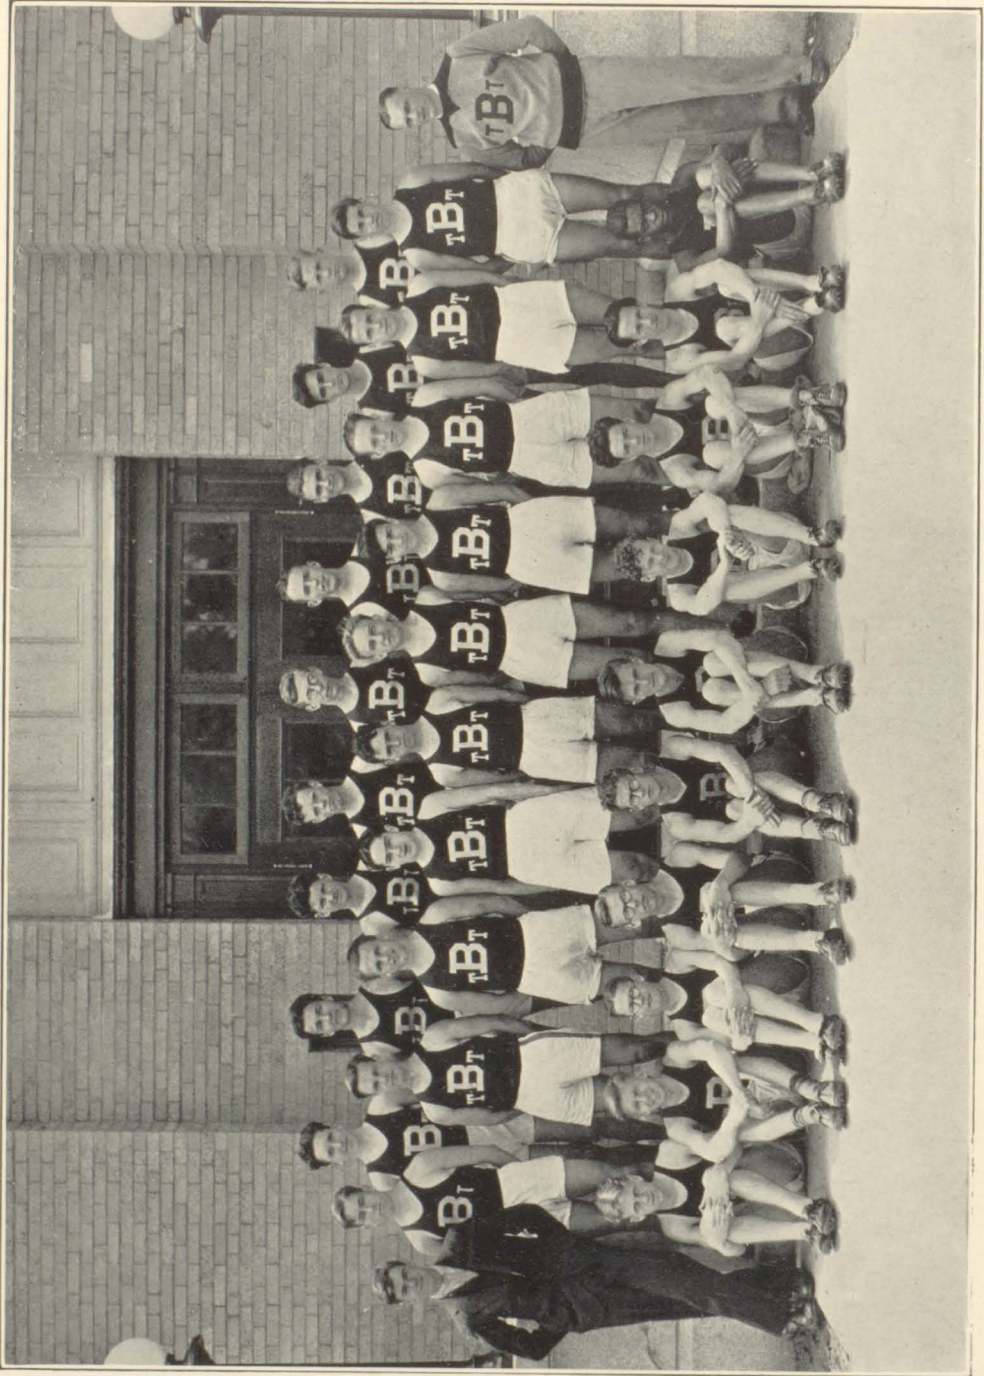

BASEBALL—1930

SURELY 1930 will always be remembered in B. H. S. as the year when one of the most successful baseball nines ever to represent the Red and Gray took the field. Coached, as ever, by William F. Foley, and led by that all-around athlete, Bob Miller, the Red and Gray diamond representatives, went through a hard schedule, bowling over all opponents, and becoming the leading contender for the state Class A baseball title.

Several factors brought about this success. Chief among these was the stellar hurling of Bob Miller and Hen Mcheski. The former especially established himself as the State's leading pitcher by his great work throughout the season, which included an enviable record of 89 strikeouts of rival batsmen to date. The clever fielding and batting of the entire team was also a great aid in accomplishing this goal. The nine performed very brilliantly on the defense to back up Miller and Mcheski, and at the plate compiled a team batting average of well over .300 for the season.

Thus the best team ever turned out by Coach Foley at B. H. S. finished its season, with a record of twelve victories against no defeats, a record equalled by no team in the state, and one which all future Red and Gray nines may shoot at.

TRACK — 1930

BLOOMFIELD HIGH SCHOOL opened its track season this spring in an auspicious manner. With the addition of Mr. Walter F. Mason, newly appointed track coach and teacher, and with the largest number of candidates reporting for practice in many years, hopes for Bloomfield on the cinder path looked brighter than they have ever appeared since the former days of local track fame. Practice for the several meets was first conducted in Watsessing Park, but the scene of action was later changed to the Glen Ridge Athletic Field. The majority of the men out for the various events were those who had been members of last year's squad, although several new men were developed, among them Doug Appleyard, who performed brilliantly in the hurdle events in his first season on the timber-topping squad. The hurdles also had two other capable performers in Blaine Carmen and Jack Cleary, both second year track men. In the sprints Bloomfield had three flashes in Paul Lawrence, Ernie Davidson and Russ Fischer. The latter was a newcomer on the track who also performed well on the court squad last winter. The middle distances were still as strong as last spring's, with Doug Freeman, Art and John Eriksen to compete, and with the addition of a promising sophomore, July Gerriga. In the field events B. H. S. showed marked improvement over the year before, when it was handicapped by lack of numbers. No such problem came up this season, for besides the two veteran tossers, Jack Davis and Hal Pierson, several newcomers entered the field. These included Arn Appleyard, and Ernie Davidson, and the four garnered many points in the weight events.

The jumps, both broad and high, also had a number of good men in their ranks. In spite of the loss of Bill Pierson, last year's tall leaper, the high jump was well covered by Doug and Arn Appleyard, Jack Cleary and Russ Fischer. Ernie Davidson and Paul Lawrence were the most reliable broad jumpers. In the pole vault Jack Cleary and Blain Carmen, veteran cloud-seekers, remained.

The first meet of the season found the untried Red and Gray tracksters journeying to Underhill Field, South Orange, where they gathered 22 points against 77 for Columbia and 10 for Plainfield. A week later Paterson Central furnished the opposition at Glen Ridge in the first home meet of the season for the Red and Gray, and were swamped by determined locals, 80-37. Meanwhile a relay team was sent to the Penn Relays in Philadelphia, and came home with a third place in one of the mile relay events. Next Irvington was met at home and also was buried, 79-38. A few days later the Red and Gray visited the shore and lost a close decision to Asbury Park, 61-56. Nothing daunted, the tracksters again entertained at Glen Ridge, this time in a triangular meet with Glen Ridge and Montclair Academy, and came out far in front by the score of 83-37-21. In this meet Jack Davis and Ernie Davidson both shone, each amassing 15 points.

GIRLS' GYM TEAM

BOTH the Junior and Senior Gym Teams have spent the greater of this year practising for a gym exhibition which was given the later part of April. This was the first gym exhibition in which the gym team members were the only participants, but it was one of the best exhibitions ever given.

The Senior Gym Team was organized sixteen years ago under the direction of Edith C. Russell. Last fall Miss Russell realized the need of a Junior Gym Team, whose members are chosen from the lower classes, and trained for the Senior Gym Team.

There are eighty-four members on the entire Gym Team, forty-eight on the Senior and thirty-six on the Junior.

THE BAND

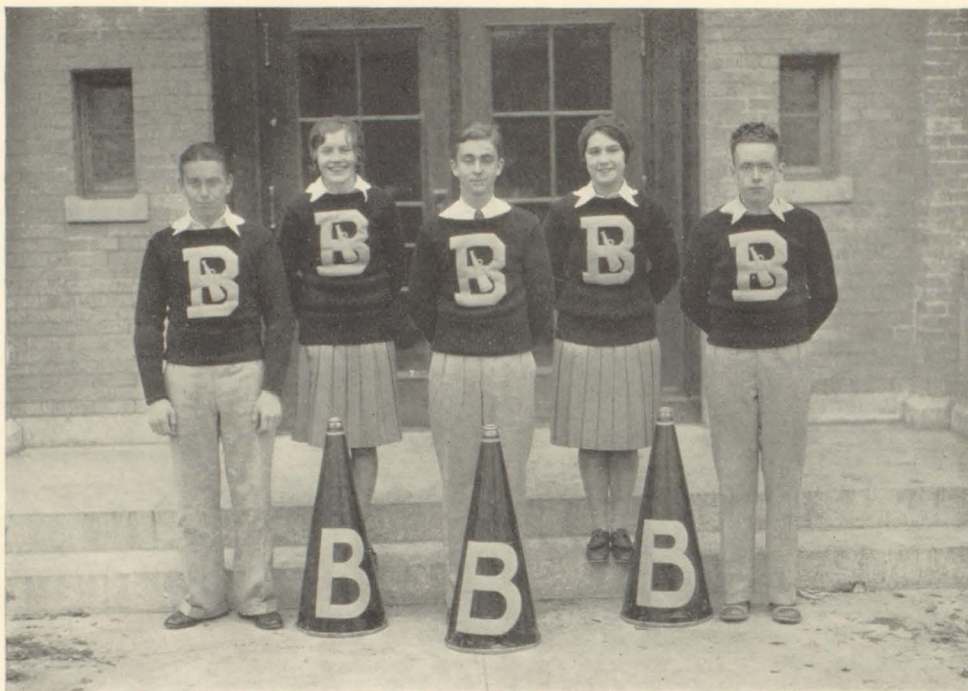

Leader ALLAN JACKES
Director BENTON F. ALLEN

THE season of 1929-1930 was a big year for the B. H. S. Band. At the beginning of the season the band had about twenty-five members, and the season is ending with nearly forty players in the band.

The band discarded the old marches which had been played to death for five years and got a new set of good number. New uniforms were furnished and the band makes a much better appearance.

The band participated in several concerts together with the orchestra and Glee Club. And the band has played for many assembly periods.

It is hoped that the interest in the band will be such that the band will continue to grow rapidly.

PRIDE OF POSSESSION

TURNING back the years was once a dream of fancy that the miracle of printing has since made real.

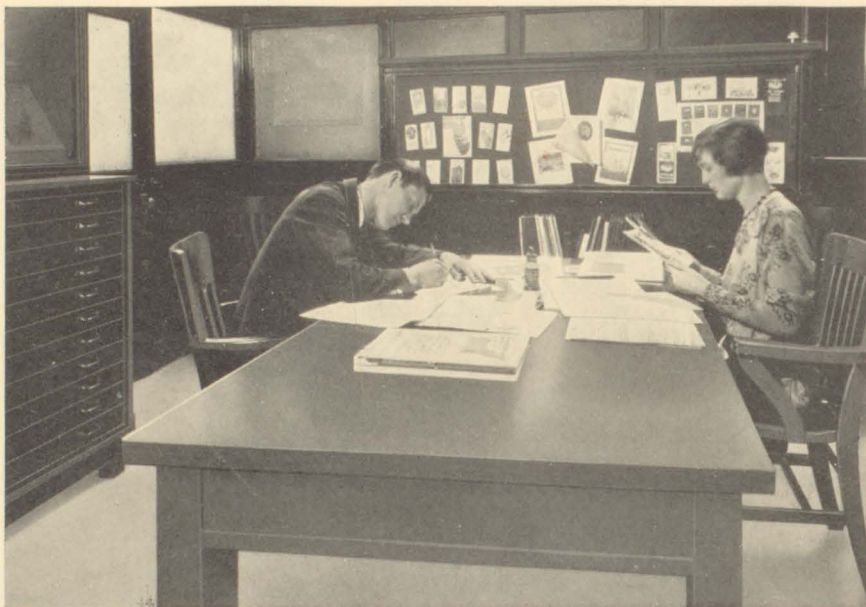

What but the printed page could perpetuate so vividly those days at school—days you will want to live again, and can, within these very covers.

Fleeting years will scatter your school day chums—classroom romances and campus gayeties may be forgotten—forgotten forever were it not that these pages have preserved imperishable those treasured memories of school day years.

What a rich possession—Your Year Book. We take great pride in the fact that it came from our printing plant. It is the production of this kind of printing that brings to our organization each year opportunities to serve many Schools and Colleges throughout the East.

Colyer Printing Co.
Sussex Ave. and Dey St.
Newark, New Jersey

IN these well lighted, comfortable surroundings you may plan your book, read proofs, make corrections and confer with our executives at any time. Here too, you will find a library of Colyer accomplishments. They will provide innumerable suggestions and prove to be of tremendous aid in making up your own book. Our "Annual" room is but another example of our earnest desire to serve you as efficiently as possible.

Every modern facility, many years of practical experience and the counsel of men well versed in every phase of printing are available.
